TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF YOUR ACCOUNT

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT - To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

AGREEMENT - This document, along with any other documents we give you pertaining to your account(s), is a contract (also referred to as "this agreement") that establishes rules which control your account(s) with us. Please read this carefully and retain it for future reference. If you open the account (whether in-person, electronically, or by any other method permitted by us) or continue to use the account after receiving a notice of change or amendment, you agree to these rules. You will receive a separate schedule of rates, qualifying balances, and fees if they are not included in this agreement. If you have any questions, please ask us.

This agreement is subject to applicable federal laws, the laws of the state of Oklahoma and other applicable rules such as the operating letters of the Federal Reserve Banks and payment processing system rules (except to the extent that this agreement can and does vary such rules or laws). The body of state and federal law that governs our relationship with you, however, is too large and complex to be reproduced here. The purpose of this agreement is to:

- (1) summarize some laws that apply to common transactions;
- (2) establish rules to cover transactions or events which the law does not regulate;
- (3) establish rules for certain transactions or events which the law regulates but permits variation by agreement; and
- (4) give you disclosures of some of our policies to which you may be entitled or in which you may be interested.

If any provision of this agreement is found to be unenforceable according to its terms, all remaining provisions will continue in full force and effect. We may permit some variations from our standard agreement, but we must agree to any variation in writing either on the signature card for your account or in some other document. Nothing in this agreement is intended to vary our duty to act in good faith and with ordinary care when required by law.

As used in this agreement the words "we," "our," and "us" mean the financial institution and the words "you" and "your" mean the account holder(s) and anyone else with the authority to deposit, withdraw, or exercise control over the funds in the account. However, this agreement does not intend, and the terms "you" and "your" should not be interpreted, to expand an individual's responsibility for an organization's liability. If this account is owned by a corporation, partnership or other organization, individual liability is determined by the laws generally applicable to that type of organization. The headings in this agreement are for convenience or reference only and will not govern the interpretation of the provisions. Unless it would be inconsistent to do so, words and phrases used in this agreement should be construed so the singular includes the plural and the plural includes the singular.

LIABILITY - You agree, for yourself (and the person or entity you represent if you sign as a representative of another) to the terms of this account and the schedule of charges. You authorize us to deduct these charges, without notice to you, directly from the account balance as accrued. You will pay any additional reasonable charges for services you request which are not covered by this agreement.

Each of you also agrees to be jointly and severally (individually) liable for any account shortage resulting from charges or overdrafts, whether caused by you or another with access to this account. This liability is due immediately, and we can deduct any amounts deposited into the account and apply those amounts to the shortage. You have no right to defer payment of this liability, and you are liable regardless of whether you signed the item or benefited from the charge or overdraft.

You will be liable for our costs as well as for our reasonable attorneys' fees, to the extent permitted by law, whether incurred as a result of collection or in any other dispute involving your account. This includes, but is not limited to, disputes between you and another joint owner; you and an authorized signer or similar party; or a third party claiming an interest in your account. This also includes any action that you or a third party takes regarding the account that causes us, in good faith, to seek the advice of an attorney, whether or not we become involved in the dispute. All costs and attorneys' fees can be deducted from your account when they are incurred, without notice to you.

DEPOSITS - We will give only provisional credit until collection is final for any items, other than cash, we accept for deposit (including items drawn "on us"). Before settlement of any item becomes final, we act only as your agent, regardless of the form of indorsement or lack of indorsement on the item and even though we provide you provisional credit for the item. We may reverse any provisional credit for items that are lost, stolen, or returned. Unless prohibited by law, we also reserve the right to charge back to your account the amount of any item deposited to your account or cashed for you which was initially paid by the payor bank and which is later returned to us due to an allegedly forged, unauthorized or missing indorsement, claim of alteration, encoding error, counterfeit cashier's check or other problem which in our judgment justifies reversal of credit. You authorize us to attempt to collect previously returned items without giving you notice, and in attempting to collect we may permit the payor bank to hold an item beyond the midnight deadline. Actual credit for deposits of, or payable in, foreign currency will be at the exchange rate in effect on final collection in U.S. dollars. We will not accept transactions by mail to the digital bank. We will treat and record all transactions received after our "daily cutoff time" on a business day we are open, or received on a day we are not open for business, as if initiated on the next business day that we are open. At our option, we may take an item for collection rather than for deposit. We will not accept third-party checks for deposit.

WITHDRAWALS -

Important terms for accounts where more than one person can withdraw - Unless clearly indicated otherwise on the account records, any of you, acting alone, who signs to open the account or has authority to make withdrawals may withdraw or transfer all or any part of the account balance at any time. Each of you (until we receive written notice to the contrary) authorizes each other person who signs or has authority to make withdrawals to indorse any item payable to you or your order for deposit to this account or any other transaction with us.

Postdated checks - A postdated check is one which bears a date later than the date on which the check is written. We may properly pay and charge your account for a postdated check even though payment was made before the date of the check, unless we have received written notice of the postdating in time to have a reasonable opportunity to act. Because we process checks mechanically, your notice will not be effective and we will not be liable for failing to honor your notice unless it precisely identifies the number, date, amount and payee of the item.

Checks and withdrawal rules - We may refuse any withdrawal or transfer request which is greater in number than the frequency permitted by our policy, or which is for an amount greater or less than any withdrawal limitations. We will use the date the transaction is completed by us (as opposed to the date you initiate it) to apply any frequency limitations. In addition, we may place limitations on the account until your identity is verified.

Even if we honor a nonconforming request, we are not required to do so later. If you violate the stated transaction limitations (if any), in our discretion we may close your account or reclassify your account as another type of account. If we reclassify your account, your account will be subject to the fees and earnings rules of the new account classification.

If we are presented with an item drawn against your account that would be a "substitute check," as defined by law, but for an error or defect in the item introduced in the substitute check creation process, you agree that we may pay such item.

Cash withdrawals - We recommend you take care when making large cash withdrawals because carrying large amounts of cash may pose a danger to your personal safety. As an alternative to making a large cash withdrawal, you may want to consider a cashier's check or similar instrument. You assume full responsibility of any loss in the event the cash you withdraw is lost, stolen, or destroyed. You agree to hold us harmless from any loss you incur as a result of your decision to withdraw funds in the form of cash.

Multiple signatures, electronic check conversion, and similar transactions - An electronic check conversion transaction is a transaction where a check or similar item is converted into an electronic fund transfer as defined in the Electronic Fund Transfers regulation. In these types of transactions the check or similar item is either removed from circulation (truncated) or given back to you. As a result, we have no opportunity to review the signatures or otherwise examine the original check or item. You agree that, as to these or any items as to which we have no opportunity to examine the signatures, you waive any requirement of multiple signatures.

Notice of withdrawal - We reserve the right to require not less than 7 days' notice in writing before each withdrawal from an interest-bearing account, other than a time deposit or demand deposit, or from any other savings deposit as defined by Regulation D. (The law requires us to reserve this right, but it is not our general policy to use it.) Withdrawals from a time account prior to maturity or prior to any notice period may be restricted and may be subject to penalty. See your separately provided notice of penalty for early withdrawal.

UNDERSTANDING AND AVOIDING OVERDRAFT AND NONSUFFICIENT FUNDS (NSF) FEES -

Generally - The information in this section is being provided to help you understand what happens if your account is overdrawn. Understanding the concepts of overdrafts and nonsufficient funds (NSF) is important and can help you avoid being assessed fees or charges. This section also provides contractual terms relating to overdrafts and NSF transactions. An overdrawn account will typically result in you being charged an overdraft fee or an NSF fee. Generally, an overdraft occurs when there is not enough money in your account to pay for a transaction, but we pay (or cover) the transaction anyway. An NSF transaction is slightly different. In an NSF transaction, we do not cover the transaction. Instead, the transaction is rejected and the item or requested payment is returned. In either situation, we can charge you a fee.

Determining your available balance - We use the "available balance" method to determine whether your account is overdrawn, that is, whether there is enough money in your account to pay for a transaction. Importantly, your "available" balance may not be the same as your account's "actual" balance. This means an overdraft or an NSF transaction could occur regardless of your account's actual balance.

Your account's actual balance (sometimes called the ledger balance) only includes transactions that have settled up to that point in time, that is, transactions (deposits and payments) that have posted to your account. The actual balance does not include outstanding transactions (such as checks that have not yet cleared and electronic transactions that have been authorized but which are still pending). The balance on your periodic statement is the ledger balance for your account as of the statement date.

As the name implies, your available balance is calculated based on the money "available" in your account to make payments. In other words, the available balance takes ACH credit transactions and debit card transactions that have been authorized, but not yet settled, and adds or subtracts them from the actual balance. In addition, when calculating your available balance, any "holds" placed on deposits that have not yet cleared are also subtracted from the actual balance. For more information on how holds placed on funds in your account can impact your available balance, read the subsection titled "A temporary debit authorization hold affects your account balance."

Overdrafts - You understand that we may, at our discretion, honor withdrawal requests that overdraw your account. However, the fact that we may honor withdrawal requests that overdraw the account balance does not obligate us to do so later. So you can NOT rely on us to pay overdrafts on your account regardless of how frequently or under what circumstances we have paid overdrafts on your account in the past. We can change our practice of paying, or not paying, discretionary overdrafts on your account without notice to you. You can ask us if we have other account services that might be available to you where we commit to paying overdrafts under certain circumstances, such as an overdraft protection line-of-credit or a plan to sweep funds from another account you have with us. You agree that we may charge fees for overdrafts. For consumer accounts, we will not charge fees for overdrafts caused by one-time (sometimes referred to as "everyday") debit card transactions if you have not opted-in to that service. We may use subsequent deposits, including direct deposits of social security or other government benefits, to cover such overdrafts and overdraft fees.

OVERDRAFT SECURITY PROGRAM - The Bank believes that it is important to use your checking account responsibly. We also understand that mistakes and financial shortfalls happen from time to time. Whatever your circumstance, we provide an overdraft and nonsufficient funds (NSF) service that is designed to assist you through short-term difficulties. The following service is available to protect you in the event that your checking account should become overdrawn:

Freedom Checking Account - For all customers with a Freedom Checking Account who have already Opted In and authorized the Bank to pay Overdrafts on everyday Debit Card transactions, you will also be automatically granted a no-fee Overdraft Security limit of $25.00 after your account has been opened for at least 60 days and your account remains in good standing*. This amount will not be eligible for ATM withdrawals or P2P transactions but will be applied to everyday debit card transactions and other types of payments such as electronic transfers, ACH items and checks.

For any transactions over your balance plus the $25.00 Overdraft Security amount, the transaction will be declined. If an item is processed such as an ACH, the account will be charged an NSF fee of $20.00 per item up to 5 items per day, up to a max of $100.00 per day. To continue to participate in the Overdraft Security program, any outstanding overdraft amounts must be brought to a positive account balance within 2 weeks or 10 calendar days. If (i) your Freedom Checking Account has been open for at least 150 calendar days and in good standing* for such 150 days, plus (ii) you have Qualifying Direct Deposits of at least $177.60 per month for at least 3 calendar months, then you may request an increase of Overdraft Security of up to $200. Even if you satisfy these conditions, Old Glory Bank has complete discretion to determine approval, which discretion will include (without limitation) your account history and other risk-based factors established by Old Glory bank from time to time.

Premium Checking Account - For all customers with a Premium Checking Account who have already Opted In and authorized the Bank to pay Overdrafts on everyday Debit Card transactions, you will also be automatically granted a no-fee Overdraft Security limit of $250.00 after your account has been opened for at least 60 days and your account remains in good standing*. This amount will not be eligible for ATM withdrawals or P2P transactions but will be applied to everyday debit card transactions and other types of payments such as electronic transfers, ACH items and checks.

For any transactions over your balance plus the $250.00 Overdraft Security amount, the transaction will be declined. If an item is processed such as an ACH, the account will be charged an NSF fee of $20.00 per item up to 5 items per day, up to a max of $100.00 per day. To continue to participate in the Overdraft Security program, any outstanding overdraft amounts must be brought to a positive account balance within 2 weeks or 10 calendar days.

Notes:

*Good Standing is when the account is not currently overdrawn, has no active legal actions such as garnishment, levy, administrative or other legal process.

 Qualifying Direct Deposit means a deposit that is from a customer's employer, payroll, or benefits provider via ACH deposit. Check deposits (mobile, mail or in-person), Peer to Peer (P2P) transfers, merchant transactions, or bank ACH transfers not from employers or benefit providers are not Qualifying Direct Deposits.

Please note that CD Accounts do not have offer any overdraft projection.

For additional information or questions on the program, please contact us at 888-446-5345 or customerservice@oldglorybank.com.

Nonsufficient funds (NSF) fees - If an item drafted by you (such as a check) or a transaction you set up (such as a preauthorized transfer) is presented for payment in an amount that is more than the amount of money available in your account, and we decide not to pay the item or transaction, you agree that we can charge you an NSF fee for returning the payment. Be aware that such an item or payment may be presented multiple times by the merchant or other payee until it is paid, and that we do not monitor or control the number of times a transaction is presented for payment. You agree that we may charge you an NSF fee each time a payment is presented if the amount of money available in your account is not sufficient to cover the payment, regardless of the number of times the payment is presented.

Payment types - Some, but not necessarily all, of the ways you can access the funds in your account include debit card transactions, automated clearing house (ACH) transactions, and check transactions. All these payment types can use different processing systems and some may take more or less time to post. This information is important for a number of reasons. For example, keeping track of the checks you write and the timing of the preauthorized payments you set up will help you to know what other transactions might still post against your account. For information about how and when we process these different payment types, see the "Payment order of items" subsection below.

Important information regarding "decoupled" cards - Decoupled debit cards are debit cards offered or issued by an institution or merchant other than us. As part of the issuing process, you provide the decoupled debit card issuer with the information it needs to link the decoupled debit card to your account with us. Once this is done, you can typically use the decoupled debit card as you would any other debit card. Importantly, however, while transactions initiated with these decoupled debit cards may originate as debit card transactions paid by the card issuer, we receive and process them as ACH transactions. Additionally, you need to refer to your agreement with the decoupled debit card issuer to understand the terms of use for that card. Thus, when our documentation refers to "debit cards," "everyday debit card transactions," or "one-time debit card transactions," we are referring to debit cards issued by us, not decoupled debit cards issued by other institutions or merchants. Different payment types can use different processing systems and some may take more or less time to post. Knowing which card you are using and how the transaction is processed can help you manage your finances, including helping you to avoid overdraft or NSF fees.

Balance information - Keeping track of your balance is important. You can review your balance in a number of ways including reviewing your periodic statement, reviewing your balance online, accessing your account information by phone, or coming into one of our branches.

Funds availability - Knowing when funds you deposit will be made available for withdrawal is another important concept that can help you avoid being assessed fees or charges. Please see our funds availability disclosure (generally titled, "Your Ability to Withdraw Funds") for information on when different types of deposits will be made available for withdrawal. For an account to which our funds availability policy disclosure does not apply, you can ask us when you make a deposit when those funds will be available for withdrawal. An item may be returned after the funds from the deposit of that item are made available for withdrawal. In that case, we will reverse the credit of the item. We may determine the amount of available funds in your account for the purpose of deciding whether to return an item for insufficient funds at any time between the times we receive the item and when we return the item or send a notice in lieu of return. We need only make one determination, but if we choose to make a subsequent determination, the account balance at the subsequent time will determine whether there are insufficient available funds.

A temporary debit authorization hold affects your account balance - On debit card purchases, merchants may request a temporary hold on your account for a specified sum of money when the merchant does not know the exact amount of the purchase at the time the card is authorized. The amount of the temporary hold may be more than the actual amount of your purchase. Some common transactions where this occurs involve purchases of gasoline, hotel rooms, or meals at restaurants. When this happens, our processing system cannot determine that the amount of the hold exceeds the actual amount of your purchase. This temporary hold, and the amount charged to your account, will eventually be adjusted to the actual amount of your purchase, but it could be three calendar days, or even longer in some cases, before the adjustment is made. Until the adjustment is made, the amount of funds in your account available for other transactions will be reduced by the amount of the temporary hold. If one or more transactions are presented for payment in an amount greater than the funds left after the deduction of the temporary hold amount, you will be charged an NSF or overdraft fee according to our NSF or overdraft fee policy, which may result in one or more overdraft or NSF fees. You will be charged the fee even if you would have had sufficient funds in your account if the amount of the hold had been equal to the amount of your purchase.

Payment order of items - The order in which items are paid is important if there is not enough money in your account to pay all of the items that are presented. The payment order can affect the number of items overdrawn or returned unpaid and the amount of the fees you may have to pay. To assist you in managing your account, we are providing you with the following information regarding how we process those items.

Note that items may not be processed in the order they are received.

General Categories, Order of Item Posting

Below is a summary of the order in which we generally post transactions to your Account. This summary is intended to be a representative of the most common types of transactions within each category, and other items may be processed to your Account even if they are not specifically listed below.

Posting of transactions during nightly processing occurs in the following order:

Offline deposits and credits

Online transactions including:

Online Debit and Credit transactions in date and time order;

This includes Teller, ATM, ACH Credits, Internet Banking and Online Transactions

Point of Sale transactions (by date and time order) and ACH Debits (posted by smallest to largest amounts)

Offline debits

Checks you have written, posted in check number sequence

If one or more checks, items, or transactions are presented without sufficient funds in your account to pay it, you will be charged an NSF or overdraft fee according to our NSF or overdraft fee policy, which may result in one or more overdraft or NSF fees. We will not charge you a fee for paying an overdraft of an ATM or one-time (sometimes referred to as "everyday") debit card transaction if this is a consumer account and you have not opted-in to that service. The amounts of the overdraft and NSF fees are disclosed elsewhere, as are your rights to opt in to overdraft services for ATM and one-time debit card transactions, if applicable. We encourage you to make careful records and practice good account management. This will help you to avoid creating items without sufficient funds and potentially incurring the resulting fees.

OWNERSHIP OF ACCOUNT AND BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION - These rules apply to this account depending on the form of ownership and beneficiary designation, if any, specified on the account records. We reserve the right to refuse some forms of ownership and beneficiary designations on any or all of our accounts unless otherwise prohibited by law. We make no representations as to the appropriateness or effect of the ownership and beneficiary designations, except as they determine to whom we pay the account funds.

Individual Account - is an account in the name of one person.

Joint Account - With Survivorship (And Not As Tenants In Common) - is an account in the name of two or more persons. Each of you intend that when you die the balance in the account (subject to any previous pledge to which we have agreed) will belong to the survivor(s). If two or more of you survive, you will own the balance in the account as joint tenants with survivorship and not as tenants in common.

Joint Account - No Survivorship (As Tenants In Common) - This is owned by two or more persons, but none of you intend (merely by opening this account) to create any right of survivorship in any other person. We encourage you to agree and tell us in writing of the percentage of the deposit contributed by each of you. This information will not, however, affect the number of signatures necessary for withdrawal.

Revocable Trust or Pay-On-Death Account - If two or more of you create such an account, you own the account jointly with survivorship. Beneficiaries cannot withdraw unless all persons creating the account die.

- If only primary beneficiaries have been named on the account:
 - On the death of the last surviving account owner, the account is payable to the surviving beneficiaries. If two or more primary beneficiaries are named and survive the death of all persons creating the account, such primary beneficiaries will own this account in equal shares, without right of survivorship. If all primary beneficiaries die before the last surviving account owner dies, the account is payable to the estate of the last surviving account owner.
- If there is only one primary beneficiary on the account, an account owner may designate one or more contingent beneficiaries. If there is more than one primary beneficiary on the account, contingent beneficiaries shall not be allowed. If one or more contingent beneficiaries have been named on the account:
 - On the death of the last surviving account owner, the account is payable to the primary beneficiary if living.
 - On the death of the last surviving account owner, if the primary beneficiary is not living, the account is payable to the contingent beneficiaries who are alive at the time of the account owner's death in equal shares. No interest in the account will belong to either the primary beneficiary's estate or to the estate of any predeceased contingent beneficiary.
 - On the death of the last surviving account owner, if neither the primary beneficiary nor any contingent beneficiary is living, the account is payable to the estate of the last surviving account owner.

The person(s) creating either of these account types reserves the right to: (1) change beneficiaries, (2) change account types, and (3) withdraw all or part of the account funds at any time. Distributions from POD accounts shall be consistent with 6 Okl. St. 901 for banks.

BUSINESS, ORGANIZATION AND ASSOCIATION ACCOUNTS - Earnings in the form of interest, dividends, or credits will be paid only on collected funds, unless otherwise provided by law or our policy. You represent that you have the authority to open and conduct business on this account on behalf of the entity. We may require the governing body of the entity opening the account to give us a separate authorization telling us who is authorized to act on its behalf. We will honor the authorization until we actually receive written notice of a change from the governing body of the entity.

STOP PAYMENTS - The rules in this section cover stopping payment of items such as checks and drafts. Rules for stopping payment of other types of transfers of funds, such as consumer electronic fund transfers, may be established by law or our policy. If we have not disclosed these rules to you elsewhere, you may ask us about those rules.

We may accept an order to stop payment on any item from any one of you. You must make any stop-payment order in the manner required by law and we must receive it in time to give us a reasonable opportunity to act on it before our stop-payment cutoff time. Because the most effective way for us to execute a stop-payment order is by using an automated process, to be effective, your stop-payment order must precisely identify the number, date, and amount of the item, and the payee. You may stop payment on any item drawn on your account whether you sign the item or not. In general, your stop-payment order - whether we receive it orally, in writing, or by another type of record - will be effective for six months. We will send you confirmation - either in writing or by another type of record - of your stop-payment order which will include the date on which your stop-payment order will lapse. (Generally, a "record" is information that is stored in such a way that it can be retrieved and can be heard or read and understood.) We may rely on the information in that confirmation unless you notify us immediately of any errors. We are not obligated to notify you when a stop-payment order expires. However, you can prevent your stop-payment order from expiring by renewing your stop-payment order before the end of the six-month period.

If you stop payment on an item and we incur any damages or expenses because of the stop payment, you agree to indemnify us for those damages or expenses, including attorneys' fees. You assign to us all rights against the payee or any other holder of the item. You agree to cooperate with us in any legal actions that we may take against such persons. You should be aware that anyone holding the item may be entitled to enforce payment against you despite the stop-payment order.

Our stop-payment cutoff time is one hour after the opening of the next banking day after the banking day on which we receive the item. Additional limitations on our obligation to stop payment are provided by law (e.g., we paid the item in cash or we certified the item).

TELEPHONE TRANSFERS - A telephone transfer of funds from this account to another account with us, if otherwise arranged for or permitted, may be made by the same persons and under the same conditions generally applicable to withdrawals made in writing. Limitations on the number of telephonic transfers from a savings account, if any, are described elsewhere.

TRANSFER LIMITATIONS - For money market accounts you may make up to six transfers or withdrawals by means of a preauthorized, automatic, or telephonic transfer to another account of yours or to a third party or by check, debit card, or similar order to a third party during any calendar month (or statement cycle of at least four weeks). A preauthorized transfer includes any arrangement with us to pay a third party from your account at (i) a predetermined time; (ii) on a fixed schedule or (iii) upon oral or written orders including orders received through the automated clearing house (ACH). If the transfer or withdrawal is initiated in person, by mail, or at an ATM then there is no limit on the number of payments that may be made directly to you, directly to us for amounts you owe us, or transfers to other accounts you have with us. Withdrawals by phone are also unlimited if you are requesting that a check be mailed to you.

AMENDMENTS AND TERMINATION - We may change any term of this agreement. For such changes, we will give you reasonable notice in writing or by any other method permitted by law. We may also suspend or terminate a service or close this account at any time upon reasonable notice to you and, if we close the account, tender of the account balance personally or by mail. Reasonable notice depends on the circumstances, and in some cases, such as when we cannot verify your identity or we suspect fraud, it might be reasonable for us to give you notice after the change or account closure becomes effective. For instance, if we suspect fraudulent activity with respect to your account, we might immediately freeze or close your account and then give you notice. If we have notified you of a change in any term of your account and you continue to have your account after the effective date of the change, you have agreed to the new terms.

When you close your account, you are responsible for leaving enough money in the account to cover any outstanding items to be paid from the account.

Items presented for payment after the account is closed may be dishonored.

Note: Rules governing changes in interest rates are provided separately in the Truth-in-Savings disclosure or in another document. In addition, for changes governed by a specific law or regulation, we will follow the specific timing and format notice requirements of those laws or regulations.

CORRECTION OF CLERICAL ERRORS - Unless otherwise prohibited by law, you agree, if determined necessary in our reasonable discretion, to allow us to correct clerical errors, such as obtaining your missing signature, on any account documents or disclosures that are part of our agreement with you. For errors on your periodic statement, please refer to the STATEMENTS section.

NOTICES - Any written notice you give us is effective when we actually receive it, and it must be given to us according to the specific delivery instructions provided elsewhere, if any. We must receive any notice in time to have a reasonable opportunity to act on it. If a notice is regarding a check or other item, you must give us sufficient information to be able to identify the check or item, including the precise check or item number, amount, date and payee. Notice we give you via the United States Mail is effective when it is deposited in the United States Mail with proper postage and addressed to your mailing address we currently have on file. Notice we give you through your email of record, or other electronic method to which you agreed, will be treated as delivered to you when sent. Notice to any of you is notice to all of you.

STATEMENTS - Your duty to report unauthorized signatures (including forgeries and counterfeit checks) and alterations on checks and other items - You must examine your statement of account with "reasonable promptness." If you discover (or reasonably should have discovered) any unauthorized signatures (including forgeries and counterfeit checks) or alterations, you must promptly notify us of the relevant facts. As between you and us, if you fail to do either of these duties, you will have to either share the loss with us, or bear the loss entirely yourself (depending on whether we used ordinary care and, if not, whether we substantially contributed to the loss). The loss could be not only with respect to items on the statement but other items with unauthorized signatures or alterations by the same wrongdoer.

You agree that the time you have to examine your statement and report to us will depend on the circumstances, but will not, in any circumstance, exceed a total of 30 days from when the statement is first sent or made available to you.

You further agree that if you fail to report any unauthorized signatures or alterations in your account within 60 days of when we first send or make the statement available, you cannot assert a claim against us on any items in that statement, and as between you and us the loss will be entirely yours. This 60-day limitation is without regard to whether we used ordinary care. The limitation in this paragraph is in addition to that contained in the first paragraph of this section.

Your duty to report other errors or problems - In addition to your duty to review your statements for unauthorized signatures and alterations, you agree to examine your statement with reasonable promptness for any other error or problem - such as an encoding error or an unexpected deposit amount. Also, if you receive or we make available either your items or images of your items, you must examine them for any unauthorized or missing endorsements or any other problems. You agree that the time you have to examine your statement and items and report to us will depend on the circumstances. However, this time period shall not exceed 60 days. Failure to examine your statement and items and report any errors to us within 60 days of when we first send or make the statement available precludes you from asserting a claim against us for any errors on items identified in that statement and as between you and us the loss will be entirely yours.

Errors relating to electronic fund transfers or substitute checks - For information on errors relating to electronic fund transfers (e.g., online, mobile, debit card or ATM transactions) refer to your Electronic Fund Transfers disclosure and the sections on consumer liability and error resolution. For information on errors relating to a substitute check you received, refer to your disclosure entitled Substitute Checks and Your Rights.

Duty to notify if statement not received - You agree to immediately notify us if you do not receive your statement by the date you normally expect to receive it. Not receiving your statement in a timely manner is a sign that there may be an issue with your account, such as possible fraud or identity theft. Absent a lack of ordinary care by us, a failure to receive your statement in a timely manner does not extend the time you have to conduct your review under this agreement.

ACCOUNT TRANSFER - This account may not be transferred or assigned without our prior written consent.

REIMBURSEMENT OF FEDERAL BENEFIT PAYMENTS - If we are required for any reason to reimburse the federal government for all or any portion of a benefit payment that was directly deposited into your account, you authorize us to deduct the amount of our liability to the federal government from the account or from any other account you have with us, without prior notice and at any time, except as prohibited by law. We may also use any other available legal remedy to recover the amount of our liability.

TEMPORARY ACCOUNT AGREEMENT - If the account documentation indicates that this is a temporary account agreement, it means that all account owners have not yet signed the signature card, or that some other account opening requirement has not been completed. We may give you a duplicate signature card so that you can obtain all of the necessary signatures and return it to us. Each person who signs to open the account or has authority to make withdrawals (except as indicated to the contrary) may transact business on this account. However, we may at some time in the future restrict or prohibit further use of this account if you fail to comply with the requirements we have imposed within a reasonable time.

SETOFF - We may (without prior notice and when permitted by law) set off the funds in this account against any due and payable debt any of you owe us now or in the future. If this account is owned by one or more of you as individuals, we may set off any funds in the account against a due and payable debt a partnership owes us now or in the future, to the extent of your liability as a partner for the partnership debt. If your debt arises from a promissory note, then the amount of the due and payable debt will be the full amount we have demanded, as entitled under the terms of the note, and this amount may include any portion of the balance for which we have properly accelerated the due date.

This right of setoff does not apply to this account if prohibited by law. For example, the right of setoff does not apply to this account if: (a) it is an Individual Retirement Account or similar tax-deferred account, or (b) the debt is created by a consumer credit transaction under a credit card plan (but this does not affect our rights under any consensual security interest), or (c) the debtor's right of withdrawal only arises in a representative capacity. We will not be liable for the dishonor of any check when the dishonor occurs because we set off a debt against this account. You agree to hold us harmless from any claim arising as a result of our exercise of our right of setoff.

AUTHORIZED SIGNER - The authorized signer is merely designated to conduct transactions on behalf of the individual owner or joint owners. Joint owners agree that the authorized signer can sign on behalf of any of the joint owners. Owners do not give up any rights to act on the account. The authorized signer may not in any manner affect the rights of the owners or beneficiaries, if any, other than by withdrawing funds from the account. The authorized signer has the following powers:

- Sign checks
- Make deposits of checks payable to the account owner into the account
- Make cash deposits into the account
- Obtain an account balance
- View copies of checks he or she has signed, and
- Obtain deposit slips when making a deposit.

Additional options and powers may be granted by separate agreement.

Account owners are responsible for any transactions of the authorized signer. We undertake no obligation to monitor transactions to determine that they are on behalf of the owners. Any one owner may terminate the authorization at any time. For accounts owned by a single individual, the authorization is automatically terminated by the death of the owner. For accounts owned by multiple individuals, the authority is terminated by the death of the last surviving owner. However, we may continue to honor the transactions of the authorized signer until: (a) we have received written notice or have actual knowledge of the termination of authority, and (b) we have a reasonable opportunity to act on that notice or knowledge. We may refuse to accept the designation of an authorized signer.

RESTRICTIVE LEGENDS OR INDORSEMENTS - The automated processing of the large volume of checks we receive prevents us from inspecting or looking for restrictive legends, restrictive indorsements or other special instructions on every check. For this reason, we are not required to honor any restrictive legend or indorsement or other special instruction placed on checks you write unless we have agreed in writing to the restriction or instruction. Unless we have agreed in writing, we are not responsible for any losses, claims, damages, or expenses that result from your placement of these restrictions or instructions on your checks. Examples of restrictive legends placed on checks are "must be presented within 90 days" or "not valid for more than $1,000.00." The payee's signature accompanied by the words "for deposit only" is an example of a restrictive indorsement.

FACSIMILE SIGNATURES - Unless you make advance arrangements with us, we have no obligation to honor facsimile signatures on your checks or other orders. If we do agree to honor items containing facsimile signatures, you authorize us, at any time, to charge you for all checks, drafts, or other orders, for the payment of money, that are drawn on us. You give us this authority regardless of by whom or by what means the facsimile signature(s) may have been affixed so long as they resemble the facsimile signature specimen filed with us, and contain the required number of signatures for this purpose. You must notify us at once if you suspect that your facsimile signature is being or has been misused.

CHECKS RE-PRESENTED ELECTRONICALLY - If a deposited item is returned unpaid, we may choose to redeposit the item either in its original form or by converting it to an electronic payment and redepositing it as an ACH entry, in each case without notice to you. Checks re-presented electronically will not be included with your Statement or otherwise returned to you. This type of check conversion is not an Electronic Funds Transfer subject to the terms of the Electronic Transaction Disclosure and Error Resolution Notice.

CHECK PROCESSING - We process items mechanically by relying almost exclusively on the information encoded in magnetic ink along the bottom of the items. This means that we do not individually examine all of your items to determine if the item is properly completed, signed and indorsed or to determine if it contains any information other than what is encoded in magnetic ink. You agree that we have exercised ordinary care if our automated processing is consistent with general banking practice, even though we do not inspect each item. Because we do not inspect each item, if you write a check to multiple payees, we can properly pay the check regardless of the number of indorsements unless you notify us in writing that the check requires multiple indorsements. We must receive the notice in time for us to have a reasonable opportunity to act on it, and you must tell us the precise date of the check, amount, check number and payee. We are not responsible for any unauthorized signature or alteration that would not be identified by a reasonable inspection of the item. Using an automated process helps us keep costs down for you and all account holders.

CHECK CASHING - We may charge a fee for anyone that does not have an account with us who is cashing a check, draft or other instrument written on your account. We may also require reasonable identification to cash a check, draft or other instrument. We can decide what identification is reasonable under the circumstances and such identification may be documentary or physical and may include collecting a thumbprint or fingerprint.

INDORSEMENTS - We may accept for deposit any item payable to you or your order, even if they are not indorsed by you. We may give cash back to any one of you. We may supply any missing indorsement(s) for any item we accept for deposit or collection, and you warrant that all indorsements are genuine.

To ensure that your check or share draft is processed without delay, you must indorse it (sign it on the back) in a specific area. Your entire indorsement (whether a signature or a stamp) along with any other indorsement information (e.g. additional indorsements, ID information, driver's license number, etc.) must fall within 1 1/2" of the "trailing edge" of a check. Indorsements must be made in blue or black ink, so that they are readable by automated check processing equipment.

As you look at the front of a check, the "trailing edge" is the left edge. When you flip the check over, be sure to keep all indorsement information within 1 1/2" of that edge.

It is important that you confine the indorsement information to this area since the remaining blank space will be used by others in the processing of the check to place additional needed indorsements and information. You agree that you will indemnify, defend, and hold us harmless for any loss, liability, damage or expense that occurs because your indorsement, another indorsement or information you have printed on the back of the check obscures our indorsement.

These indorsement guidelines apply to both personal and business checks.

DEATH OR INCOMPETENCE - You agree to notify us promptly if any person with a right to withdraw funds from your account(s) dies or is adjudicated (determined by the appropriate official) incompetent. We may continue to honor your checks, items, and instructions until: (a) we know of your death or adjudication of incompetence, and (b) we have had a reasonable opportunity to act on that knowledge. You agree that we may pay or certify checks drawn on or before the date of death or adjudication of incompetence for up to ten (10) days after your death or adjudication of incompetence unless ordered to stop payment by someone claiming an interest in the account.

FIDUCIARY ACCOUNTS - Accounts may be opened by a person acting in a fiduciary capacity. A fiduciary is someone who is appointed to act on behalf of and for the benefit of another. We are not responsible for the actions of a fiduciary, including the misuse of funds. This account may be opened and maintained by a person or persons named as a trustee under a written trust agreement, or as executors, administrators, or conservators under court orders. You understand that by merely opening such an account, we are not acting in the capacity of a trustee in connection with the trust nor do we undertake any obligation to monitor or enforce the terms of the trust or letters.

CREDIT VERIFICATION - You agree that we may verify credit and employment history by any necessary means, including preparation of a credit report by a credit reporting agency.

LEGAL ACTIONS AFFECTING YOUR ACCOUNT - Old Glory Bank aims to protect our customers' accounts. Therefore, if we are served with a lawful subpoena, restraining order, writ of attachment or execution, levy, garnishment, search warrant, or similar order relating to your account (termed "legal action" in this section), we will comply with that lawful legal action as required by applicable law, unless we determine such legal action violates your constitutional rights or is clearly related to you lawfully exercising your constitutional rights, then we may decide to not comply. However, whether we comply with such legal action (or not), you shall not be deemed to have waived any rights you may have under the Constitution and applicable law with regard to such legal action. Separately, in connection with such lawful legal action we may, in our good faith discretion, freeze the assets in your account and not allow any payments or transfers out of the account until we determine otherwise or there is a final court determination regarding such legal action. You understand that we will not have any liability to you if there are insufficient funds to pay your items because we have withdrawn funds from your account or in any way restricted access to your funds in accordance with applicable law relating to such lawful legal action. Any fees or expenses we incur in responding to any legal action (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, and our internal expenses) may be charged against your account, unless otherwise prohibited by applicable law. However, you will not be charged any fees (including our legal fees) if we decide to not comply with any such legal action because we believe such legal action violates the Constitution.

ACCOUNT SECURITY -

Your duty to protect account information and methods of access - Our policy may require methods of verifying your identity before providing you with a service or allowing you access to your account. We can decide what identification is reasonable under the circumstances. For example, process and identification requirements may vary depending on whether they are online or in person. Identification may be documentary or physical and may include collecting a fingerprint, voiceprint, or other biometric information.

It is your responsibility to protect the account numbers and electronic access devices (e.g., an ATM card, point-of-sale card and/or PIN) we provide you for your accounts. You should also safeguard your username, password, and other access and identifying information when accessing your account through a computer or other electronic, audio, or mobile device or technology. If you give anyone authority to access the account on your behalf, you should exercise caution and ensure the trustworthiness of that agent. Do not discuss, compare, or share information about your account numbers with anyone unless you are willing to give them full use of your money. Checks and electronic withdrawals are processed by automated methods, and anyone who obtains your account number or access device could use it to withdraw money from your account, with or without your permission.

Positive pay and other fraud prevention services - Except for consumer electronic fund transfers subject to Regulation E, you agree that if we offer you services appropriate for your account to help identify and limit fraud or other unauthorized transactions against your account, and you reject those services, you will be responsible for any fraudulent or unauthorized transactions which could have been prevented by the services we offered. You will not be responsible for such transactions if we acted in bad faith or to the extent our negligence contributed to the loss. Such services include positive pay or commercially reasonable security procedures. The positive pay service can help detect and prevent check fraud and is appropriate for account holders that issue a high volume of checks, a lot of checks to the general public, or checks for large dollar amounts.

Account numbers - Thieves can encode your account number on a check which looks and functions like an authorized check and can be used to withdraw money from your account. Your account number can also be used to issue a "remotely created check." Like a typical check, a remotely created check (sometimes called a telecheck, preauthorized draft or demand draft) is a draft or check that can be used to withdraw money from your account. Unlike a typical check or draft, however, a remotely created check is not issued by the paying bank and does not contain the signature of the account owner (or a signature purported to be the signature of the account owner). If you have truly authorized the remotely created check (to purchase a service or merchandise, for example), it is properly payable. But it can be risky to authorize a remotely created check. A swindler could issue a remotely created check in an amount greater than you authorized, or issue additional remotely created checks that you have not authorized. We will not know if the withdrawal is unauthorized or in an amount greater than the amount you have authorized. Payment can be made from your account even though you did not contact us directly and order the payment.

Access devices - If you furnish your access device and grant actual authority to make transfers to someone who then exceeds that authority, you will be liable for the transfers unless we have been notified that transfers by that person are no longer authorized. Please review the additional information you have received or will receive regarding transfers by access device.

Blank checks - You must also take precaution in safeguarding your blank checks. Notify us at once if you think your blank checks have been lost or stolen. As between you and us, if you are negligent in safeguarding your checks, you must bear the loss entirely yourself, or share the loss with us if we failed to use ordinary care which substantially contributes to the loss.

Check Writing- With both Premium Checking and Freedom Checking, there is no fee for you to write paper checks.

INSTRUCTIONS FROM YOU - Unless required by law or we have agreed otherwise in writing, we are not required to act upon instructions you give us via facsimile transmission, email, voicemail, or phone call to a facsimile number, email address, or phone number not designated by us for a particular purpose or for a purpose that is unrelated to the request or instruction.

MONITORING AND RECORDING TELEPHONE CALLS AND ACCOUNT COMMUNICATIONS - Subject to federal and state law, we may monitor or record phone calls for security reasons, to maintain a record, and to ensure that you receive courteous and efficient service. You consent in advance to any such recording.

To provide you with the best possible service in our ongoing business relationship for your account, we may need to contact you about your account from time to time by telephone, text messaging, or email. In contacting you about your account, we may use any telephone numbers or email addresses that you have previously provided to us by virtue of an existing business relationship or that you may subsequently provide to us.

You acknowledge that the number we use to contact you may be assigned to a landline, a paging service, a cellular wireless service, a specialized mobile radio service, other radio common carrier service, or any other service for which you may be charged for the call. You acknowledge that we may contact you by voice, voicemail, or text messaging. You further acknowledge that we may use pre-recorded voice messages, artificial voice messages, or automatic telephone dialing systems.

If necessary, you may change or remove any of the telephone numbers, email addresses, or other methods of contacting you at any time using any reasonable means to notify us.

Old Glory Bank may utilize SMS (text) messaging for the purposes of account alerts, including notifications about account or transaction issues, identify verification, documentation requirements, and access interruptions. Old Glory Bank may also use SMS messaging to communicate changes or additions to our products and services. You may cancel the SMS service at any time. Just text "STOP" to the shortcode. After you send the SMS message "STOP" to us, we will send you an SMS message to confirm that you have been unsubscribed. After this, you will no longer receive SMS messages from us. To rejoin our SMS communications, you may opt-in on our website. If you are experiencing issues with the messaging program you can reply with the keyword HELP for more assistance, or you can get help directly at 888-446-5345. Carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages. As always, message and data rates may apply for any messages sent to you from us and to us from you. You may receive one or more SMS messages per week. If you have any questions about your text plan or data plan, it is best to contact your wireless provider.

CLAIM OF LOSS - The following rules do not apply to a transaction or claim related to a consumer electronic fund transfer governed by Regulation E (e.g., an everyday/one-time consumer debit card or ATM transaction). The error resolution procedures for consumer electronic fund transfers can be found in our initial Regulation E disclosure generally titled, "Electronic Fund Transfers." For other transactions or claims, if you claim a credit or refund because of a forgery, alteration, or any other unauthorized withdrawal, you agree to cooperate with us in the investigation of the loss, including giving us an affidavit containing whatever reasonable information we require concerning your account, the transaction, and the circumstances surrounding the loss. You will notify law enforcement authorities of any criminal act related to the claim of lost, missing, or stolen checks or unauthorized withdrawals. We will have a reasonable period of time to investigate the facts and circumstances surrounding any claim of loss. Unless we have acted in bad faith, we will not be liable for special or consequential damages, including loss of profits or opportunity, or for attorneys' fees incurred by you.

You agree that you will not waive any rights you have to recover your loss against anyone who is obligated to repay, insure, or otherwise reimburse you for your loss. You will pursue your rights or, at our option, assign them to us so that we may pursue them. Our liability will be reduced by the amount you recover or are entitled to recover from these other sources.

EARLY WITHDRAWAL PENALTIES (and involuntary withdrawals) - We may impose early withdrawal penalties on a withdrawal from a time account even if you don't initiate the withdrawal. For instance, the early withdrawal penalty may be imposed if the withdrawal is caused by our setoff against funds in the account or as a result of an attachment or other legal process. We may close your account and impose the early withdrawal penalty on the entire account balance in the event of a partial early withdrawal. See your separately provided notice of penalty for early withdrawal for additional information.

CHANGES IN NAME AND CONTACT INFORMATION - You are responsible for notifying us of any change in your name, address, or other information we use to communicate with you. Unless we agree otherwise, notice of such a change must be made in writing. Informing us of your address or name change on a check reorder form is not sufficient. We will attempt to communicate with you only by use of the most recent information you have provided to us. If provided elsewhere, we may impose a service fee if we attempt to locate you.

RESOLVING ACCOUNT DISPUTES - We may place an administrative hold on the funds in your account (refuse payment or withdrawal of the funds) if it becomes subject to a claim adverse to (1) your own interest; (2) others claiming an interest as survivors or beneficiaries of your account; or (3) a claim arising by operation of law. The hold may be placed for such period of time as we believe reasonably necessary to allow a legal proceeding to determine the merits of the claim or until we receive evidence satisfactory to us that the dispute has been resolved. We will not be liable for any items that are dishonored as a consequence of placing a hold on funds in your account for these reasons.

WAIVER OF NOTICES - To the extent permitted by law, you waive any notice of non-payment, dishonor or protest regarding any items credited to or charged against your account. For example, if you deposit an item and it is returned unpaid or we receive a notice of nonpayment, we do not have to notify you unless required by federal Regulation CC or other law.

ACH AND WIRE TRANSFERS - This agreement is subject to Article 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code - Fund Transfers as adopted in the state in which you have your account with us. If you originate a fund transfer and you identify by name and number a beneficiary financial institution, an intermediary financial institution or a beneficiary, we and every receiving or beneficiary financial institution may rely on the identifying number to make payment. We may rely on the number even if it identifies a financial institution, person or account other than the one named. You agree to be bound by automated clearing house association rules. These rules provide, among other things, that payments made to you, or originated by you, are provisional until final settlement is made through a Federal Reserve Bank or payment is otherwise made as provided in Article 4A-403(a) of the Uniform Commercial Code. If we do not receive such payment, we are entitled to a refund from you in the amount credited to your account and the party originating such payment will not be considered to have paid the amount so credited. Credit entries may be made by ACH. If we receive a payment order to credit an account you have with us by wire or ACH, we are not required to give you any notice of the payment order or credit.

INTERNATIONAL ACH TRANSACTIONS - Financial institutions are required by law to scrutinize or verify any international ACH transaction (IAT) that they receive against the Specially Designated Nationals (SDN) list of the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC). This action may, from time to time, cause us to temporarily suspend processing of an IAT and potentially affect the settlement and/or availability of such payments.

PLEDGES - Each owner of this account may pledge all or any part of the funds in it for any purpose to which we agree. Any pledge of this account must first be satisfied before the rights of any surviving account owner or account beneficiary become effective. For example, if an account has two owners and one of the owners pledges the account (i.e., uses it to secure a debt) and then dies, (1) the surviving owner's rights in this account do not take effect until the debt has been satisfied, and (2) the debt may be satisfied with the funds in this account.

POWER OF ATTORNEY - You may wish to appoint an agent to conduct transactions on your behalf. (We, however, have no duty or agreement whatsoever to monitor or insure that the acts of the agent are for your benefit.) This may be done by allowing your agent to sign in that capacity on the signature card or by separate form, such as a power of attorney. A power of attorney continues until your death or the death of the person given the power. If the power of attorney is not "durable," it is revoked when you become incompetent. We may continue to honor the transactions of the agent until: (a) we have received written notice or have actual knowledge of the termination of the authority or the death of an owner, and (b) we have had a reasonable opportunity to act on that notice or knowledge. You agree not to hold us responsible for any loss or damage you may incur as a result of our following instructions given by an agent acting under a valid power of attorney.

AUTHORIZED MOBILE USER - You may wish to appoint a trusted person to add to your account as an Authorized User, such as a parent, sibling, adult child, or business manager. Your Authorized User will have access to your account via online and mobile banking via their own User ID and Password. Your Authorized User will be able to view your account balance, plus process ANY transaction that can be processed via our mobile and online banking, including (without limitation) Old Glory Pay, Bill Pay, transfers, and ACHs. Do not permit someone to be an Authorized User unless you trust this person to not misappropriate your funds! You are 100% responsible for the actions of your Authorized User. For example, if your Authorized User undertakes a banking transaction that you do not approve, there will be no remedy from Old Glory Bank and no liability to Old Glory Bank. To designate an Authorized User, start by calling Old Glory Bank Customer Service at 888-446-5345. Because adding an Authorized User can be an invitation to fraudsters to gain access to your account, after you discuss this request with Customer Service, we will e-mail to your e-mail on record an electronic signature consent form, plus we will text to you an access code to open that consent form. To remove an Authorized User, merely call Old Glory Bank Customer Service at 888-446-5345. You agree not to hold us responsible for any loss or damage you may incur as a result of any action by an Authorized User.

STALE-DATED CHECKS - We are not obligated to, but may at our option, pay a check, other than a certified check, presented for payment more than six months after its date. If you do not want us to pay a stale-dated check, you must place a stop-payment order on the check in the manner we have described elsewhere.

FDIC INSURANCE - Funds in your account(s) with us are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and backed by the full faith and credit of the United States. The amount of insurance coverage you have depends on the number of accounts you have with us that are of different "ownership." An individual account is one unique form of "ownership"; a joint account, a pay-on-death account, and a self directed qualified retirement account (e.g., an IRA) are examples of some of the others. Deposit insurance for a person's self directed qualified retirement account is up to $250,000. (An IRA is a self directed qualified retirement account as is any account where the owner decides where and how to invest the balance.) Funds are insured to $250,000 per depositor for the total of funds combined in all of your other insured accounts with us. If you want a more detailed explanation or additional information, you may ask us or contact the FDIC. You can also visit the FDIC website at www.fdic.gov and click on the Deposit Insurance link. The link includes detailed contact information as well as a deposit insurance estimator.

UNCLAIMED PROPERTY - The law establishes procedures under which unclaimed property must be surrendered to the state. (We may have our own rules regarding dormant accounts, and if we charge a fee for dormant accounts it will be disclosed to you elsewhere.) Generally, the funds in your account are considered unclaimed if you have not had any activity or communication with us regarding your account over a period of years. Ask us if you want further information about the period of time or type of activity that will prevent your account from being unclaimed. If your funds are surrendered to the state, you may be able to reclaim them, but your claim must be presented to the state. Once your funds are surrendered, we no longer have any liability or responsibility with respect to the funds.

UTMA ACCOUNTS - Under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, the funds in the account are owned by the child who has unconditional use of the account when he or she reaches the age of majority. Before that time, the account may be accessed only by the custodian (or successor custodian), and the funds must be used for the benefit of the child. We, however, have no duty or agreement whatsoever to monitor or insure that the acts of the custodian (or successor custodian) are for the child's benefit. We are not responsible to monitor age or eligibility for an UTMA account, even though our records may include the minor's date of birth. It is the custodian's responsibility to properly distribute the funds in the account upon the minor's death or attainment of the age of majority. For this type of account, the child's SSN/TIN is used for the Backup Withholding Certification.

CASH TRANSACTION REPORTING - To help law enforcement agencies detect illegal activities, the law requires all financial institutions to gather and report information on some types of cash transactions. If the information we need to complete the report is not provided, we are required to refuse to handle the transaction. If you have any questions regarding these rules, the U.S. Treasury Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) maintains a frequently asked questions (FAQ) document online. The FAQ also includes additional information for contacting FinCEN.

BACKUP WITHHOLDING/TIN CERTIFICATION - Federal tax law requires us to report interest payments we make to you of $10 or more in a year, and to include your taxpayer identification number (TIN) on the report. Interest includes dividends, interest and bonus payments for purposes of this rule. Therefore, we require you to provide us with your TIN and to certify that it is correct. The TIN is either a social security number (SSN) or an employer identification number (EIN). For most organization or business accounts other than sole proprietorships, the appropriate TIN is the EIN of the organization or business entity. For sole proprietorships, either the SSN or the EIN is appropriate. However, we must supply the IRS with both the individual owner's name and the business name of the sole proprietorship. The appropriate TINs for various other types of accounts are:

Account type - TIN

Individual - SSN of the individual.

Joint Account - SSN of the owner named first on the account.

Uniform Transfer to Minor - SSN of the minor.

Informal (Revocable) Trust - SSN of the owner.

In some circumstances, federal law requires us to withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of the interest that is earned on funds in your accounts. This is known as backup withholding. We will not have to withhold interest payments when you open your account if you certify your TIN and certify that you are not subject to backup withholding due to underreporting of interest. We may subsequently be required to begin backup withholding if the IRS informs us that you supplied an incorrect TIN or that you underreported your interest income. If you do not have a TIN, we may defer backup withholding if you certify that you do not have a TIN but have applied for one. However, we must begin backup withholding if you do not supply us with a certified TIN within 60 days. If you do not have a TIN because you are a foreign person (either an individual who is a nonresident alien or a foreign organization) you must certify your foreign status. If you are an exempt payee (receiver of interest payments), you do not need to certify your TIN, but you will have to certify your exempt status and supply us with your TIN. The most common exempt payees are corporations, organizations exempt from tax under Section 501(a), and an individual retirement plan or a custodial account under Section 403(b)(7). If you do not supply us with the appropriate TIN, we may refuse to open your account.

LOST, DESTROYED, OR STOLEN CERTIFIED, CASHIER'S OR TELLER'S CHECKS - Under some circumstances you may be able to assert a claim for the amount of a lost, destroyed, or stolen certified, cashier's or teller's check. To assert the claim: (a) you must be the remitter (or drawer of a certified check) or payee of the check, (b) we must receive notice from you describing the check with reasonable certainty and asking for payment of the amount of the check, (c) we must receive the notice in time for us to have a reasonable opportunity to act on it, and (d) you must give us a declaration (in a form we require) of your loss with respect to the check. You can ask us for a declaration form. Even if all of these conditions are met, your claim may not be immediately enforceable. We may pay the check until the ninetieth day after the date of the check (or date of acceptance of a certified check). Therefore, your claim is not enforceable until the ninetieth day after the date of the check or date of acceptance, and the conditions listed above have been met. If we have not already paid the check, on the day your claim is enforceable we become obligated to pay you the amount of the check. We will pay you in cash or issue another certified check.

At our option, we may pay you the amount of the check before your claim becomes enforceable. However, we will require you to agree to indemnify us for any losses we might suffer. This means that if the check is presented after we pay your claim, and we pay the check, you are responsible to cover our losses. We may require you to provide a surety bond to assure that you can pay us if we suffer a loss.

CHANGING ACCOUNT PRODUCTS - We may change your account to another product offered by us at any time by giving you notice that your account will be changed to another product on a specified date. If your account is a time account, the change will not occur before the next maturity date of your account. If you do not close your account before the date specified in the notice, we may change your account to that other product on the date specified in the notice.

TRUNCATION, SUBSTITUTE CHECKS, AND OTHER CHECK IMAGES - If you truncate an original check and create a substitute check, or other paper or electronic image of the original check, you warrant that no one will be asked to make payment on the original check, a substitute check or any other electronic or paper image, if the payment obligation relating to the original check has already been paid. You also warrant that any substitute check you create conforms to the legal requirements and generally accepted specifications for substitute checks. You agree to retain the original check in conformance with our policy for retaining original checks. You agree to indemnify us for any loss we may incur as a result of any truncated check transaction you initiate. We can refuse to accept substitute checks that have not previously been warranted by a bank or other financial institution in conformance with the Check 21 Act. Unless specifically stated in a separate agreement between you and us, we do not have to accept any other electronic or paper image of an original check.

REMOTELY CREATED CHECKS - Like any standard check or draft, a remotely created check (sometimes called a telecheck, preauthorized draft or demand draft) is a check or draft that can be used to withdraw money from an account. Unlike a typical check or draft, however, a remotely created check is not issued by the paying bank and does not contain the signature of the account owner (or a signature purported to be the signature of the account owner). In place of a signature, the check usually has a statement that the owner authorized the check or has the owner's name typed or printed on the signature line.

You warrant and agree to the following for every remotely created check we receive from you for deposit or collection: (1) you have received express and verifiable authorization to create the check in the amount and to the payee that appears on the check; (2) you will maintain proof of the authorization for at least 2 years from the date of the authorization, and supply us the proof if we ask; and (3) if a check is returned you owe us the amount of the check, regardless of when the check is returned. We may take funds from your account to pay the amount you owe us, and if there are insufficient funds in your account, you still owe us the remaining balance.

UNLAWFUL INTERNET GAMBLING NOTICE - Restricted transactions as defined in Federal Reserve Regulation GG are prohibited from being processed through this account or relationship. Restricted transactions generally include, but are not limited to, those in which credit, electronic fund transfers, checks, or drafts are knowingly accepted by gambling businesses in connection with the participation by others in unlawful Internet gambling.

Early Pay

With Old Glory Bank Early Pay, you may be able to get your Qualifying Direct Deposit (defined above on page 6) up to 2 or even 3 days early, depending on all of the facts and circumstances. If you have Early Pay on your account, and we receive your Qualifying Direct Deposit information from your payor prior to the applicable payday, then we will strive to make your funds available to you (if your account is otherwise in good standing) when we receive this information, which may be 2 or even 3 days early. If Early Pay is not already set-up for your account, you can request Early Pay by calling customer service at 888-440ldGlory (888-446-5345). Early Pay availability is not guaranteed, and may vary from deposit to deposit – including those from the same payor. Whether we are able to provide Early Pay depends on when we receive information from your payor that the funds are on the way. We may set limitations on the amount of early availability as standard fraud prevention screening. Also, to allow time for our system to properly identify a Qualifying Direct Deposit, it may take 2 or 3 Qualifying Direct Deposits prior to Early Pay being effective. If Old Glory Bank makes funds available to you under Early Pay and the payor then reverses or requests a return of the deposit or the funds, which are then not collected by us, we will debit your account up to the amount of the deposit that was previously made available, even if the funds have already been withdrawn from your account. This may result in overdraft fees or non-sufficient funds fees. Should any overdraft or non-sufficient funds occur, you are responsible for any fees assessed by Old Glory Bank as well as fees charged by merchants or third parties.

Early Pay is offered at the discretion of Old Glory Bank and we have the right to cancel the service at any time and without notice.

Old Glory Cash-IN

You may use Old Glory Cash-IN to make a cash deposit to your selected Old Glory Bank Account by going to a participating retailer, providing the one-time use barcode generated within your Old Glory Bank App (the "Cash-IN Barcode") to the cashier, and tendering the amount of your cash deposit. The Cash-IN Barcode has an expiration time period, so if you desire to make a cash deposit after the Cash-IN Barcode has expired, you will need to generate a new Cash-IN Barcode within your Old Glory Bank App. Participating retailer locations near you are available within your Old Glory Bank App (assuming you have not turned-off location services).

Old Glory Bank will charge your Account a fee to use Old Glory Cash-IN, of $2.99 per cash deposit. However, if your cash deposit is at least $200.00 for any given transaction, then no fee will be charged for that transaction. If you do not accept this applicable fee, do not proceed with using Old Glory Cash-IN and do not generate a Cash-IN Barcode and do not deposit cash at a participating retailer.

You will be required to provide identification to complete your cash deposit. You may not cancel any cash deposit once it has been initiated. Retain the paper receipt you receive from the participating retailer as a record of your transaction. If you log-out of your Old Glory Bank App and log back in, you will see the cash deposit transaction in your account's activity screen. If you do not see the applicable credit within your account activity screen within a few minutes, please call Old Glory Bank Customer Service at 888-446-5345. No refunds will be given for any cash deposit, except as required by law. If you believe an error has been made in the amount of credit for your cash deposit, you must notify Old Glory Bank Customer Service by calling 888-446-5345 within 60 days from the date of receipt of your periodic statement of the date of such cash deposit transaction. Upon receiving timely notice of your suspected error, Old Glory Bank will conduct an investigation and notify you within 10 days of the resolution of same. Please refer to your current Terms and Conditions related to Error Resolution processing.

You are limited to aggregate cash deposits via Old Glory Cash-IN of $4,000.00 per monthly statement cycle. Your daily limit is $2,000.00. Please note that even if our daily limit is $2,000.00, it is very likely that participating retailers who accept Old Glory Cash-IN may have a limit that is lower than our limit. For example, if your daily limit is $2,000, the participating retailer you visit to deposit cash may have a daily limit of only $1,000.

Use of Old Glory Cash-IN

In connection with your cash deposit via Old Glory Cash-IN, please note that certain payment and technology services are being provided by InComm Financial Services, Inc. ("InComm"), a licensed money transmitter. However, if there are any questions about your use of Old Glory Cash-IN, you should not contact InComm. Instead, only contact Old Glory Bank Customer service at 888-446-5345.

Cash deposited through your use of Old Glory Cash-IN will be immediately credited to your account and otherwise be available in accordance with this agreement. You will see a credit for your Cash-IN transaction by logging-out and logging back-into the Old Glory Bank App. We may revoke, suspend or otherwise deny your ability to use Old Glory Cash-IN under the terms of this agreement, including (without limitation) at any time without cause or notice, including by declining an authorization for any illegal transaction or other actions that put Old Glory Bank (or InComm or any participating retailer) at material risk. We also may further limit the number or amount of cash deposits that may be made by you via Old Glory Cash-IN. Use of Old Glory Cash-IN is subject to applicable law and all applicable rules of any clearinghouse or cash deposit network involved in collecting or processing your cash deposit. The Cash-IN Barcode has no value associated with it and may only be used to identify your account to which you may direct a cash deposit.

Savings-Linked Overdraft Protection

You may opt-in to our Savings-Linked Overdraft Protection program by calling customer service at 888-44OldGlory (888-446-5345), assuming you have previously opted-in to our Overdraft Security Program (described above).

If you opt-in, our Savings-Linked Overdraft Protection program can protect you from being overdrawn in your Freedom Checking Account by linking your Freedom Savings Account to one or more of your Freedom Checking Accounts. If your linked Checking Account closes a business day in an overdrawn status, available funds will automatically be transferred from your Savings Account to such Checking Account to bring the Checking Account back to a zero-dollar balance.

By opting into this Savings-Linked Overdraft Protection program, you authorize the Bank to conduct transfers of available funds from your linked Savings Account to such Checking Account if such Checking Account is in an overdrawn status. Your linked Savings Account must have the available funds required to cover the overdrawn amount to avoid NSF fees (described above), subject to the applicable fees per transfer described below. If your linked Savings Account does not have available funds to bring your Checking Account back to a zero-dollar balance, such Checking Account will remain in an overdrawn status and you will be assessed applicable NSF fees (otherwise described herein). Funds involved in transfers conducted to execute this Savings-Linked Overdraft Protection will not be available for any other purpose and will be applied to such applicable Checking Account during nightly processing.

Each daily transfer conducted under this Savings-Linked Overdraft Protection program that is in excess of ten dollars ($10.00) will be assessed an aggregate fee equal to five dollars ($5.00) per transfer. Please note there is only one aggregate transfer per day, so there can only be one fee per day. This fee will be waived for the first two (2) transfers under the Savings-Linked Overdraft Protection program per monthly statement cycle, regardless of dollar amount. Thus, if you have two transfers of only $8.00, which transfers would not otherwise incur a fee, the third transfer in that monthly statement cycle will still incur a fee (if otherwise in excess of $10.00). These applicable fees (like all fees herein) may be assessed against any of your accounts at Old Glory Bank.

What You Need to Know about Overdrafts and Overdraft Fees

An overdraft occurs when you do not have enough money in your account to cover a transaction, but we pay it anyway. We can cover your overdrafts in two ways:

1. We have standard overdraft practices that come with your account.
2. We also offer overdraft protection plans, such as a link to a savings account, which may be less expensive than our standard overdraft practices. To learn more, ask us about these plans.

This notice explains our standard overdraft practices.

➤ What are the standard overdraft practices that come with my account?

We do authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions:

- Checks and other transactions made using your checking account number
- Automatic bill payments

We do not authorize and pay overdrafts for the following types of transactions unless you ask us to (see below):

- ATM transactions
- Everyday debit card transactions
- P2P through Old Glory Pay

We pay overdrafts at our discretion, which means we do not guarantee that we will always authorize and pay any type of transaction.

If we do not authorize and pay an overdraft, your transaction will be declined.

➤ What fees will I be charged if Old Glory Bank pays my overdraft?

Under our standard overdraft practices:

- We will charge you a fee of up to $20 each time we pay an overdraft.
- There is a maximum of 5 overdraft fees per day, or $100, we can charge you for overdrawing your account.
- We will not charge you a fee if you are overdrawn by less than $10.00.

➤ What if I want Old Glory Bank to authorize and pay overdrafts on my ATM and everyday debit card transactions?

If you also want us to authorize and pay overdrafts on ATM and everyday debit card transactions, call 888-446-5345, visit Oldglorybank.com/overdraft.

➤ What other overdraft protection services do you offer?

- If you opt in to our Savings-Linked Overdraft Protection service, we will cover your overdrafts in your Checking Account if there are sufficient funds in your linked Savings account.
- We will charge you five dollars ($5.00) per transfer, if the aggregate transfer for any given day is more than ten dollars ($10.00). There is only one transfer per day, so there can only be one fee per day.
- The fee is waived for the first two (2) transfers per monthly statement cycle, regardless of amount.

To Opt Out of Overdraft payment of everyday debit card transactions, please call 888-446-5345.

ELECTRONIC FUND TRANSFERS YOUR RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Important Information About Procedures for Opening a New Account. To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. Old Glory Bank (not the government) maintains this information.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We will also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Indicated below are types of Electronic Fund Transfers we are capable of handling, some of which may not apply to your account. Please read this disclosure carefully because it tells you your rights and obligations for the transactions listed. You should keep this notice for future reference.

Electronic Fund Transfers Initiated By Third Parties. You may authorize a third party to initiate electronic fund transfers between your account and the third party's account. These transfers to make or receive payment may be one-time occurrences or may recur as directed by you. These transfers may use the Automated Clearing House (ACH) or other payments network. Your authorization to the third party to make these transfers can occur in a number of ways. For example, your authorization to convert a check to an electronic fund transfer or to electronically pay a returned check charge can occur when a merchant provides you with notice and you go forward with the transaction (typically, at the point of purchase, a merchant will post a sign and print the notice on a receipt). In all cases, these third party transfers will require you to provide the third party with your account number and bank information. This information can be found on your check as well as on a deposit or withdrawal slip. Thus, you should only provide your bank and account information (whether over the phone, the Internet, or via some other method) to trusted third parties whom you have authorized to initiate these electronic fund transfers. Examples of these transfers include, but are not limited to:

- Preauthorized credits. You may make arrangements for certain direct deposits to be accepted into your checking or savings account(s).
- Preauthorized payments. You may make arrangements to pay certain recurring bills from your checking account(s).
- Electronic check conversion. You may authorize a merchant or other payee to make a one-time electronic payment from your checking account using information from your check to pay for purchases or pay bills.
- Electronic returned check charge. You may authorize a merchant or other payee to initiate an electronic funds transfer to collect a charge in the event a check is returned for insufficient funds.

Some of these services may not be available at all terminals.

Cardless ATMs – at certain in-network ATMs (you can find qualifying ATMs within the Card Manager of the Old Glory Bank App), you do not need your debit card to withdraw cash. Instead, your Old Glory Bank App will generate a one-time withdrawal code that you will input into the qualifying ATM to make a withdraw. There is a $3.50 charge for each transaction.

Types of Old Glory Bank Debit Card Point-of-Sale Transactions - You may access your checking, or info and transfer funds only - no withdrawals account(s) to purchase goods (in person, online, or by phone), pay for services (in person, online, or by phone), get cash from a merchant, if the merchant permits, or from a participating financial institution, and do anything that a participating merchant will accept.

Point-of-Sale Transactions - dollar limitations - Using your card:

- you may not exceed $5,000.00 in transactions per business day

Currency Conversion and Cross-Border Transaction Fees. If you initiate a transaction with your Mastercard®-branded Debit Card in a currency other than US Dollars, Mastercard will convert the charge into a US Dollar amount. The Mastercard currency conversion procedure is based on rates observed in the wholesale market or, where applicable, on government-mandated rates. The currency conversion rate Mastercard generally uses is the rate for the applicable currency that is in effect on the day the transaction occurred. However, in limited situations, particularly where Mastercard transaction processing is being delayed, Mastercard may instead use the rate for the applicable currency in effect on the day the transaction is processed.

Mastercard charges us a Currency Conversion Assessment of 20 basis points (.2% of the transaction) for performing the currency conversion. In addition, Mastercard charges us an Issuer Cross-Border Assessment of 90 basis points (.9% of the transaction) on all cross border transactions regardless of whether there is a currency conversion. We will charge you 2.5%. A cross-border transaction is a transaction that occurs at a card acceptance location in a different country from the country in which the card was issued. This means a cross-border transaction can occur even though the transaction is made when you are not in a foreign country. For example, a transaction made online with a foreign merchant is a cross-border transaction even though made while you are physically in the United States.

Advisory Against Illegal Use. You agree not to use your card(s) for illegal gambling or other illegal purpose. Display of a payment card logo by, for example, an online merchant does not necessarily mean that transactions are lawful in all jurisdictions in which the cardholder may be located.

Please see your cardholder agreement for additional information relating to the use of your Old Glory Bank Debit Card.

- Preauthorized credits. If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you can call us at 888-446-5345 (or use the app) to find out whether or not the deposit has been made.

 - Call or write us at the telephone number or address listed in this disclosure in time for us to receive your request 3 business days or more before the payment is scheduled to be made.  - We will charge you $20.00 for each stop-payment order you give.
- Notice of varying amounts. If these regular payments may vary in amount, the person you are going to pay will tell you, 10 days before each payment, when it will be made and how much it will be. (You may choose instead to get this notice only when the payment would differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment, or when the amount would fall outside certain limits that you set.)
- Liability for failure to stop payment of preauthorized transfer. If you order us to stop one of these payments 3 business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

FINANCIAL INSTITUTION'S LIABILITY

Liability for failure to make transfers. If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable, for instance:

- (1) If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account to make the transfer.
- (2) If you have an overdraft line and the transfer would go over the credit limit.
- (3) If the automated teller machine where you are making the transfer does not have enough cash.
- (4) If the terminal or system was not working properly and you knew about the breakdown when you started the transfer.
- (5) If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire or flood) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken.
- (6) There may be other exceptions stated in our agreement with you.

CONFIDENTIALITY

We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make:

- (1) where it is necessary for completing transfers; or
- (2) in order to verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant; or
- (3) in order to comply with legal information requests; or court orders; or
- (4) as explained in the Privacy Disclosure contained elsewhere in this document.

UNAUTHORIZED TRANSFERS

(a) Consumer liability.

Generally. Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your card and/or code has been lost or stolen, or if you believe that an electronic fund transfer has been made without your permission using information from your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account (plus your maximum overdraft line of credit). If you tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your card and/or code, you can lose no more than $50 if someone used your card and/or code without your permission.

If you do NOT tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your card and/or code, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your card and/or code without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.

Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make, including those made by card, code or other means, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time.

If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

• Additional Limits on Liability for Mastercard®-branded Debit Card. You will not be liable for any unauthorized transactions using your Mastercard®-branded Debit Card if: (i) you can demonstrate that you have exercised reasonable care in safeguarding your card from the risk of loss or theft, and (ii) upon becoming aware of a loss or theft, you promptly report the loss or theft to us. Mastercard is a registered trademark, and the circles design is a trademark of Mastercard International Incorporated.

(b) Contact in event of unauthorized transfer. If you believe your card and/or code has been lost or stolen, call or write us at the telephone number or address listed in this disclosure. You should also call the number or write to the address listed in this disclosure if you believe a transfer has been made using the information from your check without your permission.

ERROR RESOLUTION NOTICE

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transfers, Call or Write us at the telephone number or address listed in this disclosure, as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared.

- (1) Tell us your name and account number (if any).
- (2) Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- (3) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days.

We will determine whether an error occurred within 10 business days (20 business days if the transfer involved a new account) after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days (90 days if the transfer involved a new account, a point-of-sale transaction, or a foreign-initiated transfer) to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within 10 business days (20 business days if the transfer involved a new account) for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 business days, we may not credit your account. Your account is considered a new account for the first 30 days after the first deposit is made, unless each of you already has an established account with us before this account is opened.

We will tell you the results within three business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

NOTICE OF ATM/NIGHT DEPOSIT FACILITY USER PRECAUTIONS

As with all financial transactions, please exercise discretion when using an automated teller machine (ATM) or night deposit facility. For your own safety, be careful. The following suggestions may be helpful.

1. Prepare for your transactions at home (for instance, by filling out a deposit slip) to minimize your time at the ATM or night deposit facility.
2. Mark each transaction in your account record, but not while at the ATM or night deposit facility. Always save your ATM receipts. Don't leave them at the ATM or night deposit facility because they may contain important account information.
3. Compare your records with the account statements or account histories that you receive.
4. Don't lend your ATM card to anyone.
5. Remember, do not leave your card at the ATM. Do not leave any documents at a night deposit facility.
6. Protect the secrecy of your Personal Identification Number (PIN). Protect your ATM card as though it were cash. Don't tell anyone your PIN. Don't give anyone information regarding your ATM card or PIN over the telephone. Never enter your PIN in any ATM that does not look genuine, has been modified, has a suspicious device attached, or is operating in a suspicious manner. Don't write your PIN where it can be discovered. For example, don't keep a note of your PIN in your wallet or purse.
7. Prevent others from seeing you enter your PIN by using your body to shield their view.
8. If you lose your ATM card or if it is stolen, promptly notify us. You should consult the other disclosures you have received about electronic fund transfers for additional information about what to do if your card is lost or stolen.
9. When you make a transaction, be aware of your surroundings. Look out for suspicious activity near the ATM or night deposit facility, particularly if it is after sunset. At night, be sure that the facility (including the parking area and walkways) is well lighted. Consider having someone accompany you when you use the facility, especially after sunset. If you observe any problem, go to another ATM or night deposit facility.
10. Don't accept assistance from anyone you don't know when using an ATM or night deposit facility.
11. If you notice anything suspicious or if any other problem arises after you have begun an ATM transaction, you may want to cancel the transaction, pocket your card and leave. You might consider using another ATM or coming back later.
12. Don't display your cash; pocket it as soon as the ATM transaction is completed and count the cash later when you are in the safety of your own car, home, or other secure surrounding.
13. At a drive-up facility, make sure all the car doors are locked and all of the windows are rolled up, except the driver's window. Keep the engine running and remain alert to your surroundings.
14. We want the ATM and night deposit facility to be safe and convenient for you. Therefore, please tell us if you know of any problem with a facility. For instance, let us know if a light is not working or there is any damage to a facility. Please report any suspicious activity or crimes to both the operator of the facility and the local law enforcement officials immediately.

YOUR ABILITY TO WITHDRAW FUNDS

This policy statement applies to "transaction" accounts, but not to savings deposits. Transaction accounts, in general, are accounts which permit an unlimited number of payments to third persons and an unlimited number of telephone and preauthorized transfers to other accounts of yours with us. Checking accounts are the most common transaction accounts. Savings Accounts and money market deposit accounts are examples of savings deposits. Feel free to ask us whether any of your other accounts might also be under this policy.

Funds Availability Policy. Our policy is to make funds available from your check deposits on the second business day following the business day of your deposit; however, the first $225 of your deposits will be available on the first business day. During this hold period, you may not withdraw these funds in cash (or otherwise remit them via any method, including Old Glory Pay) and we will not use the funds to pay checks you have written or pay your other transactions, including debit card purchases, ATM withdrawals, and ACHs. The length of the delay is counted in business days from the business day of your deposit. Every day is a business day except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. If you make a deposit before 4:00pm CT on a business day that we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after 4:00pm CT or on a day we are not open, we will consider that the deposit was made on the next business day we are open.

The length of our other holds periods vary depending on the type of deposit, as explained below.

Funds from electronic direct deposits to your account will be available on the day we receive the deposit.

Funds from the following deposits are available on the first business day after the day of your deposit:

- U.S. Treasury checks that are payable to you.
- Wire transfers.
- Checks drawn on Old Glory Bank.

If you make the deposit in person at our Elmore City Branch to one of our employees, funds from the following deposits are also available on the first business day after the business day of your deposit:

- Cash.
- State and local government checks that are payable to you.
- Cashier's, certified, and teller's checks that are payable to you.

- Federal Reserve Bank checks, Federal Home Loan Bank checks, and postal money orders, if these items are payable to you.

If you do not make your deposit in person to one of our employees at Old Glory Bank (for example, if you make a mobile deposit via our App), funds from these deposits will be available on the second business day after the day we receive your deposit; however, the first $225 of your deposits will be available on the first business day.

Without limiting the foregoing, we have the sole discretion to make funds available earlier than this policy, on a non-precedential basis.

Once your funds are available, you can withdraw them in cash, send the funds via Old Glory Pay (subject to its terms and conditions), and we will use the funds to pay checks that you have written, plus pay your other transactions, including debit card purchases, ATM withdrawals, and ACHs.

Please remember that even after we have made funds available to you, and you have withdrawn the funds, you are still responsible for checks you deposit that are returned to us unpaid and for any other problems involving your deposit.

If we hold your funds longer than the periods listed above, including for the "safeguard exceptions" listed below, we will send to you an e-mail the next business day (following the business day of your deposit), as required by applicable law. However, on a non-precedential basis, we may send to you an e-mail each time you deposit a check with a summary of your hold period, even if not required by applicable law.

LONGER DELAYS MAY APPLY

Safeguard exceptions. In addition, funds you deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period under the following circumstances:

We believe a check you deposit will not be paid.

You deposit checks totaling more than $5,525 allocable to any one business day. You redeposit a check that has been returned unpaid.

You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six months.

There is an emergency, such as failure of computer or communications equipment.

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the seventh business day after the day of your deposit.

DEPOSITS AT AUTOMATED TELLER MACHINES

Funds from any deposits (cash or checks) made at automated teller machines (ATMs) we do not own or operate will not be available until the fifth business day after the day of your deposit. Please note, however, that most of the ATMs in our network do not accept deposits.

SPECIAL RULES FOR NEW ACCOUNTS

If you are a new customer, the following special rules will apply during the first 30 days your account is open.

Funds from electronic direct deposits to your account will be available on the day we receive the deposit. Funds from deposits of cash, wire transfers, and the first $5,525 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, traveler's, and federal, state and local government checks will be available on the first business day after the day of your deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to you (and you may have to use a special deposit slip). The excess over $5,525 will be available on the ninth business day after the day of your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than a U.S. Treasury check) is not made in person to one of our employees, the first $5,525 will not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit.

Funds from all other check deposits will be available by the seventh (7th) business day after the day of your deposit, and we have the sole discretion to make funds available earlier than this 7th business day, on a non-precedential basis.

SUBSTITUTE CHECKS AND YOUR RIGHTS

What is a substitute check?

To make check processing faster, federal law permits banks to replace original checks with "substitute checks." These checks are similar in size to original checks with a slightly reduced image of the front and back of the original check. The front of a substitute check states: "This is a legal copy of your check. You can use it the same way you would use the original check." You may use a substitute check as proof of payment just like the original check.

Some or all of the checks that you receive back from us may be substitute checks. This notice describes rights you have when you receive substitute checks from us. The rights in this notice do not apply to original checks or to electronic debits to your account. However, you have rights under other law with respect to those transactions.

What are my rights regarding substitute checks?

In certain cases, federal law provides a special procedure that allows you to request a refund for losses you suffer if a substitute check is posted to your account (for example, if you think that we withdrew the wrong amount from your account or that we withdrew money from your account more than once for the same check). The losses you may attempt to recover under this procedure may include the amount that was withdrawn from your account and fees that were charged as a result of the withdrawal (for example, bounced check fees).

The amount of your refund under this procedure is limited to the amount of your loss or the amount of the substitute check, whichever is less. You also are entitled to interest on the amount of your refund if your account is an interest-bearing account. If your loss exceeds the amount of the substitute check, you may be able to recover additional amounts under other law.

If you use this procedure, you may receive up to $2,500 of your refund (plus interest if your account earns interest) within 10 business days after we received your claim and the remainder of your refund (plus interest if your account earns interest) not later than 45 calendar days after we received your claim.

We may reverse the refund (including any interest on the refund) if we later are able to demonstrate that the substitute check was correctly posted to your account.

How do I make a claim for a refund?

If you believe that you have suffered a loss relating to a substitute check that you received and that was posted to your account, please contact us at:

Old Glory Bank

PO Box 20550

Oklahoma City, OK 73156

888-446-5345

customerservice@oldglorybank.com

You must contact us within 40 calendar days of the date that we mailed (or otherwise delivered by a means to which you agreed) the substitute check in question or the account statement showing that the substitute check was posted to your account, whichever is later. We will extend this time period if you were not able to make a timely claim because of extraordinary circumstances.

Your claim must include —

- A description of why you have suffered a loss (for example, you think the amount withdrawn was incorrect);

- An estimate of the amount of your loss;
- An explanation of why the substitute check you received is insufficient to confirm that you suffered a loss; and
- A copy of the substitute check or the following information to help us identify the substitute check: the check number, the amount of the check, and the name of the person to whom you wrote the check.

PROSPERITY 12-MONTH CERTIFICATE OF DEPOSIT ACCOUNT

Account Requirement – You must have an existing account with Old Glory Bank (any consumer or business account) to open a Prosperity 12-Month Certificate of Deposit Account (a “CD Account”).

How to Establish – To open a CD Account, please call our Customer Service Representatives at 888-446-5345. You must fund your CD Account by transferring funds from your existing Old Glory Bank checking or savings account subject to the minimum and maximum amounts described below. A CD Account may have joint owners, but each owner must have an existing account with Old Glory Bank. If a CD Account is established with joint owners, each joint owner will have rights of survivorship (ROS).

Minimum Deposit Amount of our CD Account - $2,500. Upon establishing your CD Account subject to the minimum and maximum amounts herein, you must fund your CD Account at such opening (but in all events, within 5 Business Days) by requesting that we transfer such funds to your CD Account from your existing account(s) at Old Glory Bank. If you do not fund the full amount of your requested CD Account within such first 5 Business Days, the amount of your CD Account shall be automatically reduced to the amount you did so fund within such first 5 Business Days.

Maximum Limitation - The maximum amount for a CD Account is limited to $500,000 per CD Account.

Rate Information - We provide our Annual Percentage Yields (APYs) on our web page at www.oldglorybank.com, which was available to you before you requested to open this CD Account. The APY applicable to your CD Account will be the APY available for your term, from the date your CD Account is funded. The stated APY assumes that the CD remains open and that the CD principal and interest remains on deposit for the entire term. A withdrawal will reduce earnings and you may pay an early withdrawal penalty. Interest will be compounded daily using the daily balance method and will be credited to your CD Account on the last day of the calendar month and on the maturity date. This method applies a daily rate to the current balance of this CD Account each day. Interest begins to accrue on the Business Day the deposit is posted to your CD Account.

No Monthly Maintenance Fee - There is no monthly maintenance fee for a CD Account.

Maturity Date - Your CD Account term will begin when your CD Account is funded and will continue and mature on the first anniversary thereof (1 year). Upon opening and timely funding your CD Account, we will send an email to you that confirms (i) the opening balance of your CD Account, (ii) the APY, and (iii) the Maturity Date.

Transaction Limitations - Each CD is treated as a separate account with its own interest rate and maturity. During the first 10 calendar days from initial funding of your CD Account, you may close your CD Account for any reason. After this first 10 days, early withdrawal penalties will apply if you choose to close your CD Account prior to maturity. You cannot make additional deposits into a CD Account or partial withdrawal from this CD Account until the maturity date (without penalty). You may not pledge this CD Account or otherwise place a lien on it unless such CD Account is to secure a loan with Old Glory Bank. We have set-off rights against this CD Account like we do against all of your accounts at Old Glory Bank.

Automatic Renewal - Unless you have timely provided us instructions for withdrawal or transfer, on the maturity date your CD Account will automatically renew to a CD Account of an equal term (1 year) at the then current APY for our CD Accounts as shown on www.oldglorybank.com on such renewal date, unless we determine to not renew your CD Account (which we may determine in our sole discretion). You will have a grace period of 10 calendar days beginning on the maturity date to withdraw funds without being charged an early withdrawal penalty. We will provide to you a pre-renewal reminder along with the new interest rate and APY in the confirmation of renewal that we send to you.

CD Closing Methods –

1. You can request your CD Account be closed after the 10 calendar days from initial funding by paying the early withdrawal penalty described below.
2. You can request your CD Account to be closed upon maturity, but you must notify us by calling our Call Center at 888-446-5345 prior to the date of maturity.
3. You can request your CD be closed during the grace period, which is 10 days from initial funding and within 10 days of renewal.

Early Withdrawal Penalty – When you make a deposit to any one of our CD Accounts, you agree to keep the funds on deposit (principal and interest) until the maturity date. The maturity date is the first day you can make a withdrawal of principal or interest without paying an early withdrawal penalty (excluding the “grace periods” described above). We reserve the right to permit withdrawals only upon maturity. If we permit you to make an early withdrawal before maturity, you will pay an early withdrawal penalty equal to 90 days of interest on the amount of your withdrawal request. The penalty is calculated using the interest rate applicable to your CD Account.

Early Withdrawal Penalty Waivers – We will only waive an early withdrawal penalty for the following reasons:

1. Any account owner on such CD Account dies.
2. Any account owner on such CD Account is judicially declared legally incompetent.

No Statements – There are no Statements for CD Accounts, but you can view your CD Account (including balance) in our online portal and App.

Withdrawal Method – You can not use a check or a debit card and/or send an ACH or Wire, to obtain permitted withdrawals from a CD Account. The only method to obtain a withdrawal from a CD Account (without limitation to any applicable early withdrawal penalty) is to call our call center at 888.446.5345 and request either (i) an account-to-account transfer (if you have another account at the Bank), or (ii) a check be mailed to you, to your address of record with the Bank.

WIRE TRANSFER REQUESTS

Your safety and security are important to us. Unfortunately, due to the nature and speed of wire transfers, they are commonly abused by scammers to separate you from your money. Common red flags that can identify scams are that:

1. You do not know the person and they initiated contact with you.
2. They claim they are having an emergency or otherwise foster a sense of urgency.
3. They quickly declare a romantic interest in you or make an offer or opportunity that sounds too good to be true.
4. They only want payment via wire, gift cards, or crypto currency and tell you to “keep it a secret.”

You may request a wire transfer (a “Wire Transfer”) by calling customer service at 888-446-5345. Alternatively, your account may have access to our wire portal where you may request a Wire Transfer.

Your Wire Transfer request must received by us Monday-Friday before 4:00 pm CT (excluding Bank holidays). A Wire Transfer verification document will be sent to you via Secure Messaging to your Online Banking portal after processing the wire. A Bank representative may also call you to verify your Wire Transfer.

All Wire Transfers are subject to Uniform Commercial Code Article 4A, as adopted in the state in which you have your account with us. Wire Transfers are also subject to the rules of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and their operating circulars.

Your request for a Wire Transfers is evidence that you consent and agree to the terms of these provisions.

You must have sufficient collected funds in the selected account plus funds for the associated fees (Refer to our Fee Schedule) for Old Glory Bank to process a Wire Transfer. Further, to diminish the incidences of fraud, the funds in your account must have been in such account for at least 2 banking days. Without limiting the foregoing, all Wire Transfers are subject to an internal review of the details of the Wire Transfer, including recipient details. An inquiry with the Office of Foreign Asset Control (“OFAC”) is required for all Wire Transfers. The internal review and inquiry with OFAC may delay or stop the processing of a Wire Transfer.

To protect you from unauthorized transfers, we employ commercially reasonable security procedures prior to processing a Wire Transfer. By submitting a Wire Transfer request, you acknowledge that our security procedures are commercially reasonable, agree to the security procedures, and acknowledge that you will be liable for any Wire Transfer or communication amending or canceling a funds transfer order, whether or not authorized, that is issued in your name and accepted by the Bank in compliance with the agreed upon security procedure.

Once we commence processing a Wire Transfer, we will not be able to change or cancel such any time request. If we have not yet commenced processing your Wire Transfer, you may cancel or amend such Wire Transfer if we receive the communication of cancellation or amendment before, assuming we have reasonable opportunity to act on it before we commence processing such Wire Transfer. If we have already commenced processing a Wire Transfer, you cannot cancel it or amend it unless the recipient’s bank agrees. The communication of cancellation or amendment must be presented in conformity with the same security procedure that has been agreed to for such Wire Transfer.

For international Wire Transfers, we are only able to send Wire Transfers in US Dollars. The recipient’s bank or another bank involved in processing may convert the payment into the recipient account’s currency and you agree to the conversion and to the subtraction from the Wire Transfer any exchange or other fees that may be imposed by the recipient bank or another bank involved in processing the Wire Transfer.

You agree to notify us in writing of any unauthorized or erroneous Wire Transfer within thirty (30) days from the date you first received notification from us either that the Wire Transfer was accepted or your account was debited with respect to the Wire Transfer. Should you fail to so notify us of any unauthorized or erroneous Wire Transfer, we will not be liable to you for any subsequent similar occurrences that we could have prevented had we received such notice.

In the event we are ever liable to you for damages due to a Wire Transfer, your damages will be limited to damages required by UCC 4A. Except as required by Regulation E, subpart B, as applicable, we will not be responsible for the acts or omissions of any other person or entity, including (without limitation) any processor, any country’s central bank, or any other financial institution, and no such person or entity will be deemed our agent. We will not be liable for the failure or delay of any Wire Transfer or for failing to meet other obligations in these Terms and Conditions because of circumstances or causes beyond our control, including (without limitation) governmental, legal or regulator restrictions or prohibitions, third party actions, natural disasters, equipment or system failures, labor disputes, wars, or riots. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO CONTRARY, AND WITHOUT LIMITATION TO ANY OTHER PROVISIONS OF THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS, WE WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, LOST PROFITS, PUNITIVE OR SPECIAL DAMAGES (EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES), COURT COSTS OR ATTORNEY’S FEES, UNLESS OTHERWISE REQUIRED BY LAW OR REGULATION. If you make a Wire Transfer that instructs us to wire funds to foreign countries, we assume no liability as to the length of time necessary to complete such a transfer, provided we have acted in compliance with applicable law.

Any provision of these Terms and Conditions that limits the Bank’s liability does not negate the Bank’s duty (if any) under applicable law to act in good faith and with reasonable care. We make no warranties with respect to fees charged by other financial institutions with respect to your Wire Transfer. We will not be liable for failure to comply with the terms of any funds transfer order (ACH, wire transfer, or other electronic service) when such failure is caused by legal constraint, interruption or failure of transmission and/or communications facilities, war, emergency, labor dispute, act of nature, or other circumstances beyond the control of the Bank.

You hereby indemnify the Bank, its agents, and employees against any loss, liability, or expense (including attorney’s fees) resulting from or arising out of any claim of any person in connection with any matters subject to these Terms and Conditions, except where applicable law precludes your indemnification.

Domestic Outbound Wires will incur a $30 fee. International Outbound Wires will incur a $40 fee. Domestic Inbound wires are free. International Inbound Wires will incur a fee $30.

6.5 Payment Service.

- (a) Description. We provide a bill payment Service (the "Payment Service") that allows you to make bill payments to certain third-party service providers ("Payees") by accessing your accounts on such Payees' websites and online services ("Payee Sites") via the Payment Service. The Payment Service allows you to make bill payments using funds from a single Funding Account, as that term is defined in Section 6.3 below.
- (b) Payee Account Information. In order to use the Payment Service, you will need to link your accounts on Payee Sites to the Payment Service by providing Us with the information necessary to access such accounts (such as account usernames and passwords) ("Payee Account Information"). You hereby authorize Us to use and store your Payee Account Information and to access your accounts on Payee Sites to provide the Payment Service to you and to configure the Payment Service so that it is compatible with the applicable Payee Sites. You represent and warrant to Us that you are the legal owner of any accounts on Payee Sites that you access via the Payment Service and that you have the authority to allow Us to access your accounts using your Payee Account Information on your behalf.
- (c) Funding Accounts. If you use the Payment Service, bills will be paid using funds from the Freedom Spending or other transaction accounts that are permitted (each, a "Funding Account"). By initiating a bill payment through the Payment Service, you authorize Us to charge the Funding Account(s) that you designate to pay such bill. You represent and warrant that you have the right to authorize Us to charge each Funding Account for payments you initiate using the Payment Service. You agree to maintain a balance or available credit limit in each specified Funding Account that is sufficient to fund all payments you initiate using the Payment Service. If for any reason the Payment Service is unable to access funds from a specified Funding Account to complete a bill payment transaction you initiate, (for example, non-sufficient funds), the transaction may not be completed. We are not responsible for any overdraft fees, representment fees, over-the-limit fees, or insufficient fund charges (including finance charges, late fees, or similar charges) that result from your failure to maintain a balance or available credit in a Funding Account that is sufficient to fund the payments you initiate using the Payment Service.
- (d) Limitations. You acknowledge and agree that: (i) some Payees may not allow Us to access your account on Payee Sites on your behalf; (ii) Payees may make changes to Payee Sites and/or other services, with or without notice to Us, that may affect overall performance of the Payment Service and prevent or delay payment to such Payees; (iii) certain Payees may not accept payment from all types of funding sources (for example, not all Payee Sites may accept credit cards); and (iv) We may, in Our sole discretion, impose limits on the number and amount of payments, in aggregate, that you can send using the Payment Service. When you send a payment via the Payment Service, the Payee is not required to accept it. You agree that you will not hold Us liable for any damages resulting from a Payee not receiving payment made through the Payment Service for any reason.
- (e) Payment Delays and Errors. It is your responsibility to review all payment transactions you initiate using the Payment Service against account statements you receive from Us. You acknowledge that some transactions may take longer to be credited to your account on a Payee Site due to circumstances beyond Our control, such as delays in handling and posting payments, errors with Payee Account Information, or errors with funding instructions. You are solely responsible for ensuring that payments made using the Payment Service arrive by the Payee's due date. You are solely liable for errors you make in using the Payment Service. Without limiting the foregoing, We will not be responsible or liable: (1) if a Funding Account you specify as a payment source is closed or does not contain sufficient funds to complete a transaction; (2) if a payment is rejected, returned, mishandled, or delayed by the Payee or Us for any reason; or (3) due to (i) any unavailability of the Payment Service for any reason, (ii) fraud or attacks on the Services, or (iii) circumstances beyond Our control (for example, fire, flood, third party networks, or any failure by your computer, software, or Internet connection).

- (f) Unauthorized Transactions. You must notify Us immediately if you suspect or believe that a transaction has occurred through the Payment Service that you did not authorize or that an incorrect amount was authorized. In an effort to manage Our risk, We and Our service providers may, but are not required to, monitor your transactions and processing activity for high-risk practices or for fraudulent transactions.

6.6 Electronic Communications. The communications between you and Us via the Services use electronic means. For contractual purposes, you consent to receive communications from Us in electronic form, and you agree that all terms and conditions, agreements, notices, disclosures, and other communications that We provide to you electronically satisfy any legal requirement that such communications be in writing.

You agree that We have no obligation to provide any Updates or to continue to provide or enable any particular features or functionality of the Services.

6.9 Change and Suspension.

- (a) Changes to the Services. We reserve the right to make changes to, suspend, or discontinue (temporarily or permanently) the Services or any portion thereof at any time. You agree that We will not be liable to you or to any third party for any such change, suspension, or discontinuance.
- (b) Suspension/Termination of Access. We have the right to deny access to, and to suspend or terminate your access to, the Services or to any features or portions thereof, at any time and for any reason, including if you violate these Terms of Service or if We believe there is suspicious or unusual activity related to your account. Neither termination nor suspension shall affect your liability or obligations under these Terms of Service. In the event that We suspend or terminate your access to the Services, you will continue to be bound by the Terms of Service that were in effect as of the date of your suspension or termination. In the event We terminate your account, any payments to Payees that We have processed before the termination date may be completed, however you should verify that such payments have been completed directly with your intended Payee. We are not responsible for any payments not completed by Us as a result of termination.

We are not responsible for checks or items we do not receive in accordance with this Agreement or for items that are dropped or damaged during transmission. An image of a scanned item is deemed received when you receive confirmation from us that we have received the image. Receipt of such information does not mean that the transmission was error free, properly processed or complete, or that funds will be credited for that check or item. You agree we are not liable for any loss, costs, or fees you may incur as a result of a chargeback of an ineligible item. By using Mobile Deposit, you accept the risk that an item may be intercepted or misdirected during transmission. You agree that we bear no liability to you or others for any such intercepted or misdirected items or information disclosed through such errors.

If you are permitted to make a deposit in excess of your limit, such deposit is still subject to this Agreement, and we are not obligated to accept a similar deposit at other times. The current monthly dollar limit is $50,000.00 for any consecutive thirty (30) calendar day period. There is no daily or monthly limit on the number of items that may be deposited, as long as the respective monthly dollar limits are not exceeded. YOU AGREE TO INDEMNIFY US AND TO HOLD US HARMLESS FROM AND AGAINST ANY AND ALL LOSSES, COSTS, SUITS, DAMAGES, CLAIMS, LIABILITIES, AND EXPENSES (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, REASONABLE ATTORNEYS' FEES) ARISING FROM OR RELATED IN ANY WAY TO YOUR BREACH OF THE FOREGOING REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES, YOUR USE OF THE SERVICE, AND/OR OUR PROVISION OF THE SERVICE TO YOU. YOUR AGREEMENT TO INDEMNIFY US AND HOLD US HARMLESS WILL SURVIVE THE TERMINATION OF THIS AGREEMENT FOR ANY REASON.

Disposal of Transmitted Checks. After you transmit any check image to us and receive confirmation from us that we have received the image, you agree to securely store the original check during the Check Retention Period. During the Check Retention Period, you agree to take appropriate measures to ensure that: (i) only authorized persons will have access to the check, (ii) the information contained on the check will not be improperly disclosed, and (iii) the check will not be duplicated, further scanned and transmitted through any remote deposit capture service, and/or deposited or negotiated in any form. Alerts are not encrypted and may include some information about your accounts. Anyone with access to your email, mobile phone, or other device or accounts receiving alerts will be able to view the content of these alerts and it is your responsibility

Any automatic or voluntary alerts provided by us may be delayed, blocked, or prevented by a variety of factors. While we will use reasonable efforts to provide alerts in a timely manner with accurate information, we can neither assure nor guarantee the timely delivery or the accuracy of the information contained in any alert. You agree that we will not be liable or responsible for: any delays, blockage, failure to deliver, or misdirected delivery of any alert, any errors in the information contained in an alert; or for any actions taken or omitted to be taken by you or any third party as a result of or in reliance upon any alert provided by us or not delivered by us.

Consumer Debit Cardholder Agreement

Please read this Old Glory Bank Master Card Debit Cardholder Agreement (the “Agreement”) carefully and retain it for your future reference. This Agreement applies to all transactions resulting from the use of your Debit Card (the “Card”) through an automated teller machine (ATM), a Point-of-Sale (POS) terminal or any other use of the Card(s), whether electronic or not, which has been made available to you by Old Glory Bank (“Bank”).

Please read this Agreement carefully and keep it for your records. The agreement you make with us, and the rights and obligations we both have, are governed by, and interpreted according to the state of Oklahoma and federal law. This Agreement, together with other agreements or disclosures you may receive from us, such as the Old Glory Bank Consumer Deposit Account Agreement (“Account Agreement”), establishes our and your rights and obligations.

When you see the words “we,” “us,” or “our” in this Agreement, it refers to the Bank, and any of the Bank’s affiliates, successors, assignees, agents or service providers. When you see the words “you” or “your,” it refers to you, the owner of the Account, as well as your personal representatives, executors, administrators, and successors.

You authorize us to pay from your deposit account (“Account”) the total amount of any transaction originated by proper use of the Card. You also agree that the use of the Card described in this Agreement shall be subject to the rules, regulations and fees governing each deposit account which is accessed by such Card, including but not limited to the Bank’s right of set-off.

1. Activating the Card and Setting a PIN

1.1 Card Agreement Acceptance and Card Activation

This Card requires activation before you may use it. You may activate the Card by calling 1-888-446-5345. Your activation and use of the Card mean that you agree to the terms and conditions described in this Agreement.

1.2 Personal Identification Number (PIN)

You will be required to select a 4-digit personal identification number (PIN) prior to using the Card for the first time. The 4-digit numerical PIN issued to you is for security purposes. The PIN represents your signature authorizing transactions made using your card(s), identifies the bearer of the Card, and serves to validate and authenticate the directions given to complete the Card transactions.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR SAFEKEEPING YOUR PIN. YOU AGREE TO TAKE ALL REASONABLE PRECAUTIONS SO NO ONE ELSE LEARNS YOUR PIN AND YOU AGREE NOT TO DISCLOSE OR OTHERWISE MAKE YOUR PIN AVAILABLE TO ANYONE NOT AUTHORIZED TO SIGN ON YOUR DEPOSIT AND/OR LOAN ACCOUNT(S).

Your PIN should NOT be written on the Card or anywhere it is available to others for use by lawful and/or unlawful means.

1.3 Permissible Uses of Your Card

You agree that you will use the Card only for personal, household or family purposes and it will not be used for any business purposes unless the account is opened for a sole proprietor.

1.4 Digital Issuance of Your Card

Digital Issuance of Cards from Old Glory Bank enables delivery of a temporary electronic version of your Card, both when you first open an account and when you request a replacement Card. This allows you to enjoy a seamless experience with your Card and you can easily add your digital Card to your digital wallet, plus use your digital Card at most online merchants and those merchants who accept digital wallet payments.

Your temporary digital Card will be available in the Card Manager feature within our online banking portal and App.

Once you receive and activate your physical Card, your temporary digital Card will immediately terminate. If you do not receive and activate your physical Card by the temporary digital Card's expiration date, your digital Card will cease to work, so please look for your physical Card and ensure you activate it! The physical Card information can then be added to your digital wallet for long-term use.

2. Use of the Card

2.1 No Secondary Cardholders

The Card is solely for your use and you may not request an additional card for another person. If you give anyone else access to your Card, we will treat any transaction they initiate as authorized by you, and you will be responsible for all transactions and fees that occur.

2.2 ATM and Point-of-Sale PIN Withdrawals

With your PIN, you can use your Card to obtain cash from your Account up to your Available Balance at any ATM or any Point-of-Sale ("POS") device in the United States that displays the MasterCard, MasterCard ATM, acceptance marks. Not all merchants will permit you to get cash back through their POS devices.

If you use an ATM, including a balance inquiry, you may be charged a fee by the ATM operator even if you do not complete a withdrawal. This ATM fee is a third-party fee assessed by the individual ATM operator only and is not assessed or controlled by us.

This ATM fee amount will be charged to your Account in addition to any applicable fees disclosed in this Agreement or your Account Agreement.

2.3 Retail Card Purchases

You may use your Card to make purchases using your PIN at any merchant with a POS device anywhere that displays the MasterCard acceptance marks. You may also use your Card to make purchases without your PIN anywhere that MasterCard debit cards are accepted.

2.4 Split Transactions

You can instruct a merchant to charge your Card for part of a purchase and pay any remaining amount with cash or another card. This is called a “split transaction.” Some merchants do not permit split transactions. If you wish to conduct a split transaction, you must tell the merchant the exact amount you would like charged to your Card. If you fail to inform the merchant you would like to complete a split transaction and you do not have sufficient available funds in your Account to cover the entire purchase amount, your Card is likely to be declined.

2.5 Card-Not-Present Transactions

You may make retail card purchases without presenting your Card by providing information from your Card, such as transactions done by internet or telephone. Conducting transactions in this way has the same legal effect as if you used the plastic Card itself. For security reasons, the amount or number of card-not-present transactions you may make may be limited.

2.6 Use of the Card with Digital Wallets

A digital wallet (“Wallet”) provides another way for you to make purchases with your Card. A digital wallet is a service provided by another company (such as Apple Pay, Android Pay, Samsung Pay, etc.), that allows you to use your Card to pay for transactions where the Wallet is accepted. A Wallet may not be accepted at all places where your Card is otherwise accepted, and your Card may not be eligible for all the features and functionalities of the Wallet. Any use of your Card in or through the Wallet continues to be subject to all terms and conditions of this Agreement. We may terminate your access to or use of your Card with a Wallet at any time and for any reason, including if you violate any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement.

You can add or remove your Card from a Wallet by following the instructions provided by the Wallet provider. By doing this, you agree to allow us to share your Card information with the Wallet provider. You may be required to take additional steps to authenticate your identity before your Card is added to the Wallet. We do not charge you any additional fees for adding your Card to a Wallet or for using your Card in the Wallet. However, any fees and charges that would apply when you use your Card outside the Wallet will also apply when you use a Wallet to make purchases with your Card or otherwise access your Card. The Wallet provider and other third parties such as wireless companies or data service providers may charge you fees. The digital version of your Card in a Wallet may, in our sole discretion, be automatically updated or upgraded without notice to you.

We are not the provider of the Wallet, and we are not responsible for providing the Wallet service to you or for ensuring that your Card is compatible with any Wallet service. We are only responsible for supplying information to the Wallet provider to allow usage of your Card in the Wallet as you have requested. We are not responsible for any failure of the Wallet, any mobile device you use with the Wallet, or the inability to use the Wallet for any transaction. We are not responsible for the performance of services by any Wallet provider or any other third parties regarding any agreement you enter. We do not control the privacy and security of any of your information that may be held by the Wallet provider. Any information held by the Wallet provider is governed by the privacy policy given to you by the Wallet provider. If you have location services enabled on your mobile device, the location of your mobile device may be collected and shared by the Wallet provider in accordance with their respective data and privacy policies, including with us. If you request to add your Card to a Wallet, you authorize us to collect, transmit, store, use and share information about you, your mobile device, and your use of the Card in accordance with our privacy policy, as amended from time to time, available at <https://oldglorybank.com/privacy-notice>

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES AND UNDER NO LEGAL THEORY ARE WE LIABLE FOR ANY LOSSES OR DAMAGES RESULTING FROM YOUR USE OF A WALLET, YOUR USE OF THE CARD OR VIRTUAL CARD IN CONNECTION WITH A WALLET, OR A MOBILE DEVICE.

If you use a Wallet, you should protect your Wallet and your mobile device as you would your Card. If your Wallet or mobile device is compromised, lost or stolen, you should also consider your Card lost or stolen and notify us immediately. Please see Section 7 for instructions for reporting a lost or stolen Card. If you have any questions, disputes, or complaints about a Wallet, contact the Wallet provider using the information given to you by the provider.

2.7 Foreign Transactions

Charges from foreign merchants and financial institutions may be made in a foreign currency. We will bill you in U.S. dollars based on the exchange rate on the day we settle the transaction, plus any special currency exchanges charges that may be imposed by us, the MasterCard network and/or by any third-party used to complete the transaction.

The exchange rate between the transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing international transactions is a rate selected by MasterCard from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date. This rate may vary from the rate MasterCard itself receives, or the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date. The conversion rate may be different from the rate in effect on the date of your transaction and the date it is posted to your Account.

Regardless of whether the transaction is made in foreign currency or in U.S. dollars, additional fees may apply to all international transactions using the Card. Please refer to our current fee schedule for more information about our fees.

2.8 Card Authorization Holds

When you use your Card to purchase goods or services or to obtain cash from a merchant, the merchant may request preauthorization (“Card Authorization”) for the transaction. If the merchant makes such a request and there are sufficient available funds in your Account, we will approve the transaction and place a temporary hold on the funds in your Account. This hold will reduce the Available Balance in your Account. The amount of this temporary hold will usually be the amount of the Card Authorization.

If you use your card at a restaurant, your Available Balance may be reduced by the amount of the card authorization plus up to an additional twenty percent (20%) of that amount, to account for potential tipping.

The card authorization will remain on your Account until the merchant sends us the final amount of the transaction and requests payment (“settlement”). In most cases, if the merchant does not request settlement, or the merchant is delayed in requesting settlement, the card authorization will automatically be removed after three (3) days. However, for certain merchants such as hotels and rental car companies, it may take up to thirty (30) days for the card authorization to be removed.

It is important to understand that the merchant controls the timing of card authorizations or settlement. A merchant may request settlement after the card authorization has been removed from your Account. This means that if you use the funds in your Account after the card authorization has been removed and the merchant later requests settlement, your Account may become overdrawn. A merchant may also request settlement for an amount that is different than the card authorization. Therefore, it is important that you keep track of your transactions and your balance. Once we have approved a card authorization, we cannot stop the transaction and you will be responsible for repaying any negative balance that may occur.

2.9 Customized Debit Card Limits

As part of the Online Banking Services, you may be given the ability to establish customized debit card transaction limits that are lower than the limits that are otherwise applicable to POS transactions and ATM withdrawals for yourself or any secondary cardholders to help you manage and control your spending.

3. Card Limitations

There may be limits on the amount and frequency of withdrawals and deposits you can make using your Card. Please refer to the Account Agreement for any limits that may apply to your Account.

4. Returns and Refunds

Please be aware of the merchant's return policies before using your Card to make a purchase. The Bank is not responsible for the delivery, quality, safety, legality or any other aspect of the goods or services you purchase using your Card. If you have a problem with a purchase that you made with your Card or if you have a dispute with the merchant, you must handle it directly with the merchant. If you are entitled to a refund for any reason for goods or services obtained using your Card, you agree to accept credits to your Card for the refund and agree to the refund policy of the merchant. The amounts credited to your Card for refunds may not be available for up to five (5) days from the date the refund transaction occurs.
